

About the Workshop

What is the workshop all about?

The workshop covers the theological tradition on which JustFaith is based, stories of the impact of JustFaith, and instructions on how parishes can implement the program. Attending this introductory workshop does not commit one to the JustFaith program.

Who is conducting the workshop?

Dan Driscoll.

Dan has worked with parishes, schools, and community organizations on spirituality and justice issues for over 15 years. He has been a social worker, parish youth minister, teacher, diocesan director of parish social ministry, and diocesan director of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. He worked as an editor at Ave Maria Press in South Bend, Indiana for four years, and is the founder of Good Shepherd Montessori School, where he currently serves as head of school.

Dan has facilitated workshops and spoken on peace and justice issues at the local, state, and national levels. He served on the national leadership team for the parish social ministry section of Catholic Charities USA and has served on the national board for JustFaith.

A graduate of The Catholic University of America, Dan holds a master of divinity from the University of Notre Dame. Dan authored several articles on prayer and family life, and his first book, Daddyhood: This Changes Everything!, was published in 2002.

Dan and his wife, Felicia, are raising five children in South Bend.
