Preparations for launching the 2016 - 2018 Capital Campaign progressing. Leaders for the 13 teams in the primary areas of focus – Communication, Prayer, Response, and Education – have been selected and training on their specific duties and responsibilities has taken place over the past couple of weeks.

Inserted in next weekend's Bulletin will be a message from Fr. Mike and Fr. Timothy introducing the campaign and its leaders and providing suggestions about how you can play a part in supporting this exciting campaign.

Many thanks to all who have volunteered their time and talent to be a member of one of the 13 teams. It's not too late to help. Information about each of the teams and a description of their responsibilities is on the St. James website at www.stjames-liberty.org.

To quote Fr. Mike, "We invite EVERYONE to 'come on board' and be a part of this exciting adventure".

Contact the parish office and let us know that you want to share your time and talent. We look forward to hearing from you.

From the Pastor's Pen

This past weekend, members of our Pastoral Council spoke to us on a new program underway that is very exciting and will benefit children in the Liberty School District, and our neighboring public school, EPIC.

The 'Backpack' program is sponsored by Harvesters' Food Network, and provides children of low-income families with food and nutrition over the weekends during the school year. Our Pastoral Council is undertaking inviting our parish to be part of this endeavor to help families in need. This past weekend was their first invitation and people were very generous – raising over $1,700 to get the program underway. More details are here in the Bulletin. Thanks so much for being so responsive to helping those in need. You'll be hearing more about this program and how you can get involved over the next few weeks.

Our Campaign is underway, and our 6 Co-Chairs and Team Leaders are doing a great job and we have lots of enthusiastic folks on board. We really have as our goal to be able to raise enough money through our efforts this Fall to get a church underway. It's a huge effort and it'll take every parishioner being part of it, so if you haven't signed up yet, you can still do so. Let's spread the word about all the good that is happening here to build our community in so many ways!!

We pray in gratitude for the Precious Blood Community, for their dedicated service to St. James for so many years. Their community is celebrating their 200th Anniversary and Fr. Timothy, along with members of his community, are headed to Rome to celebrate world-wide this exciting milestone. We as a parish are extremely grateful for the Priests and Brothers of the Precious Blood Community who have served this parish, as well as the Companions who continue to share the message of St. Gaspar del Buffalo with our parish to this day! The CPPS community will have their local celebration of the 200th Anniversary on Sunday, August 16th at 4:00 p.m., to which we are all invited.

May you and your families continue to know God's Blessings as we journey through the summer!!

Peace, Fr. Mike

The Snack-Pack Program A project of the United as One Ministry

The Snack-Pack program is for children in the St. James and Epic schools that qualify for the free and reduced lunch program. It provides some sustenance for the child over weekends when they do not have access to school lunches.

In our first weekend, we were able to collect approximately 30% of the monies needed to fund this program for one school year.

No one deserves to go hungry, especially children. Please continue to give to this program and look for updates showing our progress in reaching our goals.

Look for our donation box on the hope gift card table.

North Star Boy's Choir
"Voices Of Gold"
Coming To St. James
June 29 at 7:00 pm

All are invited to attend this extraordinary concert of sacred and secular music presented by this award winning choir of 24 boys, ages 8-15.

Winner of bronze and silver medals at the World Choir Games in 2012, and proclaimed "Voices of Gold" by two German newspaper critics, this is a choir to be heard. With crystal clear voices, and wonderful intonation, the North Star Boys' Choir from Minnesota, will delight audiences of young and old alike.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

In six days we once again celebrate the birth of our nation. There will be parades, picnics, fireworks, and endless speeches about freedom; freedom fought for by soldiers over the past 200+ years, and guaranteed by our constitution. Even the Pledge of Allegiance states we are "One nation under God, with liberty and justice for all." Without sounding unpatriotic, I sometimes question the truth of these words and concepts, and feel repelled at their meaningless repetition in public addresses. What is true freedom? How are we witnesses of liberty and justice for all?

Recently I read a quote from Pope Francis' Evangelii Gaudium. As preface to these words let me say that I believe our Pope's words and actions are a beautiful example of the true freedom, found through knowing, loving and serving Christ Jesus. I also feel Pope Francis example of simplicity and inclusivity are the only way to bring liberty and justice to all humankind. Here is his quote:

To believe that the Son of God assumed our human flesh means that each human person has been taken up into the very heart of God. To believe that Jesus shed his blood for us removes any doubt about the boundless love which ennobles each human being. Our redemption has a social dimension because 'God in Christ, redeems not only the individual person, but also the social relations existing between men.' To believe that the Holy Spirit is at work in everyone means realizing that he seeks to penetrate every human situation and all social bonds. 'The Holy Spirit can be said to possess an infinite creativity, proper to the divine mind, which knows how to loosen the knots of human affairs, even the most complex and inscrutable.' Evangelization is meant to cooperate with this liberating work of the Spirit." (para. 78)

I intentionally highlighted parts of this quote, because I believe these words help define us as followers of Jesus, Catholics, and citizens of the United States. As such we are obligated to work for peace and justice for all. We cannot remain idle while our brothers and sisters go without nourishing food, safe shelters, medical care, and education. We cannot view others as outside God's embrace because they look, live or act differently. St. Paul urges: "As many of you were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew of Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus." All humanity was made in the image and likeness of God; He emptied himself and became like us in everything but sin; and we are all God's beloved children. Jesus lived on the margin of His cultural world. He challenged the status quo. He reached out to those shunned, hurting, and alone. His life was one of emptying and letting go. So too for each of us a life of hope and love is a life of emptying and letting go. Jesus revealed that fullness of life comes from recognizing our radical and complete dependence on God. That for me is true freedom, and worth praying for. Happy Fourth of July.

Your sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

We pray for Our Country, Leaders, and Loved ones serving our Country:

Saints Peter and Paul Feast Day - June 29

These two saints are the founders of the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there.

Peter, who was named Simon, was a fisherman of Galilee. Jesus gave him the name Cephas (Petrus in Latin), which means 'Rock,' because he was to become the rock upon which Christ would build His Church.

St. Paul was the Apostle of the Gentiles. His letters are included in the writings of the New Testament, and through them we learn much about his life and the faith of the early Church.

In the year 395, St. Augustine of Hippo said of Sts. Peter and Paul: "Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood.

St. Thomas, Apostle Feast Day - July 3

Best known for his initial unwillingness to believe the other apostles in their claim that Jesus had risen from the dead, St. Thomas can teach the faithful about believing without seeing.

When he was told about it by the other apostles, he said, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in his side, I will not believe." When Christ appeared later he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side and do not be unbelieving, but believe."

Pope Benedict XVI said "The Apostle Thomas' case is important for at least three reasons. "First, it comforts us in our insecurity; second, it shows us that every doubt can lead to an outcome brighter than any uncertainty; and, lastly, the words that Jesus addressed to him remind us of the true meaning of mature faith and encourage us to persevere, despite the difficulty, along our journey of adhesion to him."

Mark 5:36

Do you approach the Lord Jesus with expectant faith or with skeptical doubt? People in desperate or helpless circumstances were not disappointed when they sought Jesus out. What drew them to Jesus? Was it hope for a miracle or a word of comfort in their affliction? What did the elderly woman who had suffered miserably for twelve years expect Jesus to do for her? And what did a grieving father expect Jesus to do for his beloved daughter who was at the point of death? Jesus gave hope where there seemed to be no human cause for it because his hope was directed to God. He spoke words of hope to the woman (Take heart, daughter!) to ignite the spark of faith in her (your faith has made you well!).

Parish Religious Education

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

July 6 - 10
8:30 am - 12 noon

We love VBS at St. James! That's the good news.

The "bad" news is that it takes an army of volunteers to produce that week of fun and games for our campers.

We need your help to make that week happen – and without it, VBS is just a fond memory of years gone by. We need a few parents to be station leaders – the lessons are already scripted for you; you just need to present them in short, 20 minute sessions.

We need a few parents to be team leaders – you just accompany your crew as they move from station to station. And we need a few parents to help with snacks or supervising our teen helpers. And we need teen helpers as well. All roles are easy and the rewards are a-MA-zing. It's just a week, and only half days – could we make it any easier? If you have commitments for some of the days, we can pair you with another volunteer, so don't let that hold you back from signing up.

Volunteer sign-up sheet are available in the narthex.

St. James School News

Our Father, who "works" in heaven,
hallowed be thy name....."

Imagine... a school day that begins with prayer, includes a reading of the Word of God, and then time for reflection on what God is saying to each one of us. During our day, we learn how to spread His good news. We celebrate God's creation and thank Him as we learn to be good stewards of the amazing gifts He's given to us. We see Him in EVERYTHING: math, literature, nature, history, music, the arts and in each other. A day like this is like each and every day at St. James School, including Kindergarten!

We pray together, celebrate Mass together, work together, and encourage each other through successes and trials to help the children enjoy the richness of our Catholic Faith.

We have a great school! Our teachers are fabulous! Our motto is, "As good as we are, we can always get better!" So we continually study, go to trainings, and review our practices, so that we give our students the very best education possible.

Did you know?

As a tithing member of the parish, you will pay no tuition, as our school is a ministry of our church. Become a part of our school! Please contact the school office at 816-781-4428 for more information!
