PARKING FOR EASTER SUNDAY

A few thoughts about parking for our Easter Sunday Masses.

- Please do not park on any of the islands.
- Please do not park in front of the church. The red curbs designate the clear space for emergency vehicles.
- Parking will be permitted on the hill behind the cross and sign.
 - Enter and exit through the open space (designated by cones) on the curved road.

Please allow a little extra time; we do not have the B&B Theater lot for overflow parking.

Thank You

Jim Newell, Operations Manager

The Artwork On The Cover

The image of Jesus featured on this week's bulletin cover was drawn by 12-year old Casey McFall, son of parishioners Tom and Silvia McFall. The drawing was submitted in the recent T-Shirt Design Contest and our Parish staff thought that it was the perfect graphic for our Palm Sunday Bulletin, reminding us to walk with Jesus during the upcoming Holy Week.

Casey is a 6th grader at South Valley Middle School and participates in the St. James RE program. His dad says that Casey has an avid interest in art and loves to draw.

Join us in the School Library on Sunday, March 20 from 4:00 - 6:00pm for the fourth session of our Year of Mercy Catholic Enrichment Series.

From the Pastor's Pen

This weekend we celebrate Palm Sunday and begin this sacred week of Holy Week. As we come to the close of the Lenten season, we recall the last days of Jesus' life.

We invite you to enter into the events of this week which we call the TRIDUUM – the three days – Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil – when we re-enact Jesus' giving of His Body & Blood, which is the Eucharist, His Passion and Death, and ultimately His Resurrection from the dead.

These are the great days of our faith. If you've not participated in any of the Triduum liturgies, I invite you to do so. They're beautiful stories of our faith being lived out.

We also are very grateful at the Easter Vigil as we celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation with our Elect, and welcome them into our faith with the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. And we welcome our candidates, those who have already been baptized in another denomination, to the Table of the Lord in the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.

And then of course, on Easter morning, we celebrate the message of the Resurrection!

Again, all are welcome, our Triduum Liturgies are at 7:00pm on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday night (the Easter Vigil), and on Easter Sunday when Masses are at 8:00am and 10:30am, both in the church and the gym!

May you and your families know the Hope and New Life we celebrate this coming week!

Peace,
Fr. Mike

PREPARING FOR DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

In preparation for Divine Mercy Sunday, the Lord asked St. Faustina to make a Novena of Prayer from Good Friday to the following Saturday.

These nine days of prayer before Divine Mercy Sunday are like the nine days of prayer in the Upper Room before the day of Pentecost. For each of the nine days our Lord gave St. Faustina a different intention.

Each of us can make the Divine Mercy Novena for these intentions and others by following the directions that are in the "The Divine Mercy Novena and Chaplet" insert in this week's bulletin.

If you are on the St. James email list you will receive the Novena intentions and prayers for each day beginning on Good Friday.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Today is a day filled with expectation and contrast. We begin our liturgy proclaiming "Hosanna, Hosanna, blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest." With palm branches and pageantry we echo the words of the angels at His birth, and proclaim that Jesus is King. However once again, processing with song into the worship space, we quickly come face to face with His passion and death. Sadness and sorrow overcome the joy of His entry into Jerusalem. As I reflect on this event I can't but wonder what His disciples thought on that day, filled with palm waving and shouts of exultations. Did they think the time had finally come for Jesus to assume His place as leader of the Jewish people? Were they anticipating the fall of Roman rule, replaced by the glory of a new Davidic kingdom? Were they so blind to Jesus' words and teachings? For perhaps, just like modern humans, those followers believed they knew best how to make the world a better place. Their human minds and selfish hearts had it all figured out. It was easier to understand defeating enemies rather than loving them. It was easier to turn a blind eye to the disenfranchised rather than to care for them. Their own ideas of wealth, power, and position as the chosen ones, left little room for Jesus' instructions to become humble servants. Perhaps the real question should be: Where are we today? Do we embrace this day in the spirit of Jesus' true message or has it become routine, seasonal liturgy? Perhaps my words sound harsh, but I wonder how far we've come, even as we prepare to embrace not only His suffering but His resurrection. Do His words still fall on deaf ears? Are we so sure that we've got it right, we no longer hear His gentle whisper to turn to Him for direction? Do we have eyes and hearts turned towards the Father's will and not our own? Will we stand at the foot of the cross in despair or believing, hoping, trusting in the truth of His promise to be with us always? Do we believe He is the Christ who comes to heal the brokenness of our world? Can we forgive in our times of sadness, pain and sorrow as Jesus forgave humanity while giving His life on the cross? These are just a my simple thoughts to ponder in preparation for the Sacred Triduum, this Year of Mercy, 2016.

Spring Blood Drive Tuesday, March 29

Spring is a season of new hope, new beginnings, and new life. As local patients needing blood wait for donors to step forward to help, can you imagine what "Spring" means to them? Can you imagine the joy that overcomes them when someone offers them a sign of new hope, new beginnings, and new life? As a blood donor, you have the amazing ability to share the gift of Spring with them.

Please join us on Tuesday, March 29th in the social hall as we partner with Community Blood Center by hosting our second blood drive of 2016. Blood donations can be made between 12:30 and 7:00pm. Appointments are highly encouraged and can be scheduled online at www.savealifenow.org using sponsor code 'stjames', or by contacting Nikki Power at 816-407-1208 or kpower@kc.rr.com. Walk-ins are also welcome. If you have medical eligibility questions, please call 1-800-688-0900. For your convenience, childcare is provided. Adult and youth helpers are needed and can contact Nikki to volunteer with childcare, serve refreshments, and/or clean up after the drive.

It takes many hands to make these drives a success, whether you are a donor or a volunteer, please prayerfully consider what you can do to help. "Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have; God is pleased by sacrifices of that kind." – Hebrews 13:16

Stay Awake with Jesus

9th-12th grade Holy Thursday in the "Garden"
8PM — Midnight - March 24

After Mass on Holy Thursday, Jesus is taken to the Altar of Repose, a special altar set up in the social hall, where people can pray with Him, just as the disciples went with Jesus to the garden after the Passover meal (Last Supper) Jesus asked the disciples to "stay awake" on that night before his death.

Everyone is invited to come stay awake as we reflect the Agony in the Garden and get ready for Easter.

There is also a special invitation to St. James High School Youth to make this a priority. After Holy Thursday Mass, everyone will process out to the altar.

If you are not able to attend the Mass, you can still come to stay awake with Jesus anytime until Midnight. Please plan on at least an hour or two to spend in our Sacred Spaces and at the altar.

Saturday, April 2nd, 2:00 pm in the church

As you heard in the parent meeting, David Dice will be here on the first weekend of First Communions to take both individual and a group photo. This is an optional activity, but we do plan to put the group photo on the front cover of the bulletin. The price sheet went home at the parent meeting, but the cost is reasonable and David does a good job. You will need to pay him on the day of the photo shoot, and pictures will be delivered here some time during the next week or so after that. We will give them to you at the First Communion Masses, or you may pick them up in the parish office.

The Week Ahead - Holy Week

Look below for some cool things happening at St James during this next week. I didn't make a special mention of the Holy Week services, but I would highly recommend that you pick at least one of these services to share with your family.

- Holy Thursday features the washing of the feet, which is very cool for a child to witness, and the children's choir will be singing.
- Good Friday has the Veneration of the Cross, which can be very powerful for kids.
- The Easter Vigil is probably beyond the capabilities of most little children, but very do-able for older kids. It's long, and it's late, so probably not a good fit for preschoolers, but school aged children, if prepared ahead of time, should do fine. The music for all will be very lovely.
- You can also choose to do the Stations of the Cross--if you haven't already done that with your family--on Good Friday. See the bulletin for details on all of the Holy Week services, all of which begin at 7 pm.
