Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Did You Know?

Stewart Road Closure Begins Tuesday, April 12

Stewart Road will be closed from the North for what is currently estimated at nine weeks beginning on Tuesday, April 12 and reopening on Monday, June 6.

These dates are estimates – weather and construction contingencies can impact completion.

Red Legacy (Developer) advises they will be lowering the road surface approximately 15 feet.

We have developed a plan for traffic flow into and out of St. James – for our Masses, school children drop and pick-up and normal church / school activities.

This weekend's bulletin Includes a clearly marked route into and out of the facility.

We ask that everyone use this route everyday for all traffic during the Stewart Road closure.

We understand that this road closure creates challenges getting into and out of our parking lot. Working together, we can make the best of a difficult situation.

We appreciate your understanding.

Thank You
Jim Newell, Operations Manager

From the Pastor's Pen

We continue our celebration of Easter as we celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter, and here once again of the Risen Lord appearing to the disciples. Today is also Divine Mercy Sunday. All are invited Sunday afternoon to a celebration of Divine Mercy, from 2 - 4 pm. There will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, the Sacrament of Reconciliation and the chance to celebrate and reflect on the tremendous Mercy of God.

We celebrate First Communions during the Easter season, so we congratulate our children and their families receiving the Body and Blood of Christ for the first time. We also are grateful for our new Catholics, those who were Baptized and Confirmed and received the Eucharist for the first time as we welcomed them to the Table of the Lord at the Easter Vigil.

We hold onto the Easter season for 50 Days – all the way to Pentecost, so it's an opportunity, as the Easter candle burns brightly at each Mass, to reflect on the presence of the Risen Lord Jesus in our lives, and pray that we might live out that New Life in all that we do!

On Thursday, April 21, all are welcome to join Bishop Johnston and Fr. Joe Nassal, C.P.P.S., the Provincial of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, here at St. James for a HEALING SERVICE for all victims of sexual abuse and their families. Our diocese began these services in various parishes last Spring, and they have been wonderful opportunities for healing, for victims of abuse or families in anyone in our Church who has been wounded in any way by the sexual abuse scandal. It will be an opportunity to gather to pray, to ask and seek God's forgiveness in this Year of Mercy. Please spread the word and all are invited to come in this Easter to experience God's healing and mercy.

Don't forget our Royals Baseball Get-Away, Sunday, April 24th. Tickets are $30 – they are going fast, so be sure to buy yours soon. What a great way to celebrate the Royals and our parish at the same time!!

May you and your families know the New Life in the Risen Lord Jesus.

Peace, Fr. Mike

Someone is Watching and Wondering

By now I'm sure you are familiar with this image which symbolizes the Jubilee Year of Mercy (December 8, 2015 – November 20, 2016) called by Pope Francis. Reflecting on what this means, I find it difficult to articulate a satisfactory understanding of mercy. Webster defines mercy as compassionate rather than severe behavior towards someone in one's power; a thing to be thankful for."

Similarly the Catholic Encyclopedia explains mercy as "active, compassion toward another in unfortunate circumstances; an essential form of Christian charity," requiring "not only a feeling of compassion but also an intention to ease the other's misfortune if possible." The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that mercy is the fruit of charity, and we receive God's mercy when we confess our sins and forgive others. These parameters, although true, just didn't seem to reveal the heart of God's mercy or how I can be "Merciful like the Father." My next thought was perhaps grace is a synonym for mercy, so I searched for its meaning: "unconstrained and undeserved favor or goodwill, God's loving mercy displayed to man for the salvation of his soul." Still bewildered I opened my bible. Wow, the Concordance has three columns referencing mercy. Certainly the Incarnation, passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus are obvious examples of His mercy, but the two other passages that struck me the were the crucified criminal who asked for Jesus' forgiveness, and the women caught in adultery. Both of these individuals had committed sins, both were brought forward for punishment required and justified by law, and Jesus offered both mercy and forgiveness. To the criminal, Jesus said, "today you will be with me in paradise," and to the women he said, "neither do I condemn you, go and sin no more." From a purely legalistic point of view both of these individuals had broken the law, they were guilty, and under the law there was prescribed punishment. God's love, however, was greater. He offered forgiveness and compassion. He offered new life. I think He continues to offer the same to each of us. Whenever we honestly confront and confess our sinfulness, He forgives. He welcomes us into His loving embrace, and shows us the possibilities of new life with Him. He doesn't put conditions or stipulations. He is compassionate and merciful. I think that is also what He asks of me: "Don't put conditions on forgiveness, love even where guilt is real and punishment necessary. As St. Paul says, faith, hope, and love, but the greatest of these is love." Perhaps unconditional love and forgiveness are true synonyms for mercy, as we are called to live merciful like the Father.

St. Joseph Table Thank You

Our 4th annual St. Joseph's Table was a success. When I get the final total I will have it posted in our bulletin. Leon and I would like to thank all parishioners who volunteered to make cookies and cakes and those who volunteered to help work the days of the event and to all that came to help clear and take down the table. This helped us tremendously. A big thank you to Fr. Timothy and Mary DiGiovanna for the construction and planning of the design of the table. It was fabulous! Thanks also to the ladies who helped decorate the table – Mary Inzerillo, and Mary Midiri; I know there were others I just can't remember who. There are many more whose help we were thankful for: Those who helped bagging the breads, boxing the cookies and putting the favas with the medals together; the kids who helped keep the tables and hall clean and who worked at the raffle and candle table; Kathy Herr for helping get donations; the Sprofera family who helped with whatever was asked of them and gave us support when needed. And also the kitchen help: Leon, John Vernickas, Roger Arthur, Carl Inzerillo, Larry Donnici, and Bruce Carter. And of course to Judy Keisling for getting the word out about the table and helping organize the volunteer slips. And finally to the merchants for their donations: both Liberty Price Choppers, HyVee, Giovanni's Restaurant, Red Lobster, The Landing, and Premium Packaging Group.

If I've forgotten anyone, it isn't intentional. We thank each and every one of you; for with you we would not have had a St. Joseph's Table. Thank You for all your hard work.
Anna Jo, and Leon Pfannenstiel
