Volunteers Urgently Needed

Immaculata Manor Thrift Store needs volunteers! Tasks include pricing and sorting donations, relieving at the cash register, and working in specific departments such as tools, pictures, etc.

Volunteers set their own hours at times convenient to them, whether it be once a week, a few hours a day, or whatever their availability. The store is open from 10am to 5pm Monday through Saturday. Men and women of all ages and youths 14-years of age or older are invited and encouraged to volunteer.

If you can help or would like more information, contact manager Amy Abbiatti at 816-781-5472.

Amy says that volunteers experience a family environment at the store and have lots of fun.

The store is located at 931 S. Brown Street, Liberty, across from the library.

From the Pastor's Pen

This weekend we are approaching the end of July – hard to believe that August and the beginning of the school year is getting close.

Speaking about the school year. If you're new in our community or looking for an elementary school for your family, St. James School offers a quality Catholic environment, and an accredited academic program. We have openings Kindergarten through eighth grade, and if you'd like to know more about our grade school, please contact the school anytime for a tour. Also, we are a 'tithing' parish, meaning that if you are a tithing member of our parish, we offer Catholic education to you and your family. Our school is celebrating their 60th Anniversary this year, and we are proud of 60 years of providing Catholic education in our parish community.

A special thanks for your generosity to Fr. Feddy, our Missionary priest last weekend and his community, the Missionaries of the Holy Family. It's a great community that serves the poor and needy in Third World countries throughout the world, and our support helps further the work of the Church worldwide.

Our Family Fun Nights have been a success and our next one is planned for this coming Tuesday, July 26. This, our last Fun Night of the year, will be held in the gym and features a Sound of Music Sing-a-Long and costume contest. Come and join for some family fun – folks of all ages are welcome!

This Monday we celebrate the Feast of St. James, our patron – we pray that with the help of St. James, we might continue to build our parish community to meet the needs of all who come our way.

With the recent violent acts of terrorism in our country and throughout the world, let us continue to Pray for Peace.

May you and your families continue to have a Blessed Summer & "Keep Cool".

Peace,
Fr. Mike

Special Events

Blood Drive Tuesday, July 26

Summers are busy and life can throw us curveballs. One thing that remains the same is the constant need for blood donors to supply the 580 pints needed daily for our local patients. The need for blood increases tremendously in the summer and the current blood supply is running low for our area. On Tuesday, July 26th St. James will be hosting a Community Blood Center blood drive from 12:30-7:00pm in the social hall.

Please consider taking an hour of your time to help save lives and bring new hope to those fighting to survive. You can book your appointment now by contacting Nikki at kpower@kc.rr.com or 816-407-1208 or at www.savealifenow.org using sponsor code 'stjames'. Each presenting donor will receive a KC Royals t-shirt! As always, volunteers are needed. If you'd like to assist our generous blood donors by serving refreshments, working in our childcare area, or helping with cleanup, please contact Nikki to sign up. Service hours are available to students who sign up. For medical eligibility questions, call 1-800-688-0900. Thank you for supporting the blood drives at St. James and for praying for the success of each drive.

The Church Sings | La Iglesia Canta

Hello St. James! I want to share with you some reflections on my time spent in Houston, TX last week. For those wondering, I was at the National Association of Pastoral Musicians annual convention. This year's theme was "The Church Sings!" And boy, do we ever. St. James has always been a strong singing community and for that I am forever grateful.

On Tuesday morning I had the privilege of hearing Dr. C. Vanessa White. She spoke of the many different paths that lead to the one God. She posed a series of questions to us: What leads me? Who journeys with me? What makes me come alive? We all experience good and bad times in our lives. She reminded us to celebrate the "Good" and not focus on the bad. Do we allow ourselves to be transformed? Jesus said choose life, experiencing LOVE! Love your neighbor as yourself. Agape love, transformative love, only comes from the Holy Spirit. Pure Love casts out all fear.

In all the sessions I attended, there was a common theme of LOVE and PATIENCE. What things can we let go of in our lives? Do we harbor hate, or intolerance in our hearts? It's only when we die to ourselves that we can begin to rise anew!

Many Blessings,
Danny Baker

Someone is Watching and Wondering

A On the feast of the Epiphany, 1972, the Catholic Church reinstated the Rites for Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). The world's bishops recognized the Rites as a tool for missions in developing countries, and a way to revitalize faith in de-Christianized Europe. No one believed the RCIA would make much difference in the post-conciliar church, especially in the United States. Subsequently, in October 2000 the U.S. bishops compiled Journey in the Fullness of Life, in which they reported that the RCIA "is renewing the life of the Church in the United States." Since RCIA is a journey of conversion, by extension it is a journey for all the faithful. In the subsequent years, Christian initiation has moved from obscurity to a place of great prominence in the American Catholic Church. Where it is implemented well, it functions as a source of energy and new life.

N Initiation rites are about identity. They define a community demonstrating who the community is and what it holds dear. Yet along with identity, initiation also involves change. While identity sounds firm and comforting, change is an occasion of risk. The rituals are joyful, yet filled with awe and perhaps fear, because they ritualize the acceptance of stepping into a new, unknown future. As the parish celebrates initiation rites, the baptized faithful are called to redefine social values and re-evaluate what it means to be Catholics who remain faithful to the teachings of Jesus. The complacent may become unsettled, and the jaded refreshed as they witness changes in the heart and soul of the community. This process of continual conversion is defined as mystagogy.

I Christian initiation is centered in catechesis, however, many people mistakenly assume that catechesis refers to specific doctrines or theologies. When I talk to people about becoming Catholic, their common response is "I want to learn the 'Catholic stuff.'" Catechesis, however, is much more than simply learning the "Catholic stuff;" it supersedes such a narrow interpretation. Catechesis is a life long process that involves a radical relationship with Jesus. Catechesis explores and recognizes God's action and presence in our natural lives, in scripture, and in the life, faith, and worship of the people of God. As such, Initiation is both catechetical, and a public, liturgical process. Evangelization, ministry to the alienated, hospitality, accessibility, and the face the parish presented to strangers draw strength from the initiation rites. The RCIA has turned the church outward and has invited the faithful to recognize themselves as church who embrace their identity and mission as baptized disciples. Thus it is the entire community who bring new Christians to birth. The Rite states that those requesting initiation "seek the living God and enter the way of faith and conversion." People come to St James saying "I want to be Catholic," deeply seeking God, and a community of fellow believers. Our parish as witness to the faith, experience Christ more deeply by sharing experiences, praying with and for the catechumens and guiding them along this life-long journey. We invite them into a wondrous process where they develop, deepen and enrich their relationship with our loving God in Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit. Likewise when we witness catechumens giving up old ways of doing/being, and committing themselves to Jesus, it makes us want to recommit ourselves to Christ, to renew and refresh our faith lives.

Anyone interested in becoming part of our RCIA team, or desiring to become a Catholic, please contact me at 816-522-3311.

School Daze

Hard to believe, but true – in just a few short weeks school bells will be ringing again.

Many stores have begun having “deep discount” sales on school supplies, so now is the perfect time to stock up on those crayons, pencils, pens, notebooks, calculators, rulers, paper and whatever else you need. And, remember - these items can be used in your home as well.

Before you shop, be sure to pick up HOPE gift cards for the stores where you'll be looking for those “back to school” sales. We have HOPE gift cards in stock for many of the stores where you'll likely shop – whether it's Walmart, Office Depot, Walgreens, Target, HyVee, or Price Chopper – we have them all.

HOPE Gift Cards are sold after every weekend Mass and in the Parish Office during regular business hours.

Shop Until You Drop . . . Then Have Lunch

Shopping for school supplies can take time and is also often stressful. So, why not stop for lunch or an afternoon snack after your shopping expedition and pay for it with a HOPE Gift Card.

Hillcrest Update

Our Hillcrest Hope resident has graduated to her own place! Our congratulations went out to Jonni and her daughters as they began a new chapter in their lives. Now it's time for us to begin getting the apartment ready for a new family to move in and begin the rebuilding. We will be looking for your help on this – there are some things that the apartment will need, and we will need to provide the move-in groceries as well as the little touches that tell our new family that they have the support of their friends at St James. I'll put up a Signup Genius soon with ways that you and your children can be involved. As always, if you have special talents –perhaps you are a carpenter, plumber, electrician, really great interior decorator – we would be thrilled to have the gift of your expertise! So keep watching for more details as the time gets closer.

Enrollment for PB&J Begins Soon

PB&J (Prayer, Bible Stories & Jammin') is a fun way to introduce your youngest children to church.

We sing, we dance, we explore musical instruments. We play, we take turns, we socialize. We tell bible stories, we kneel, we pray. Infants, toddlers, preschoolers and parents all benefit from PB&J!

Weekly 45-minute classes begin in September and run through May. Enrollment begins August 1. Brochures and Registration Forms will be in the Narthex next weekend. Contact Lori (singwithmisslori@gmail.com) for more information.

St. James School News

Our Mission Statement

The St. James Catholic School Community, a ministry of the parish, empowers students to achieve their full academic and Christian potential, become prayerful, lifelong learners and good stewards of God's gifts.

Sing A Song...

Here at St. James we are blessed to have administration, priests, teachers, and parents who support music in our school. Due to their support and encouragement, our music program thrives and flourishes with many opportunities. The auction this year was abundantly generous to the music department and many new instruments were purchased.

This year we performed many programs throughout the grade levels. Our Middle School presented, "Enchanted Sleeping Beauty" and our primary grades ended the year with "Sing a Song of Aesop". In the middle of the year, the 3rd, 4th and 5th grade students presented a vocal and instrumental Christmas program. The Preschool delighted everyone with their program while the Prekindergarten classes presented a "PLAYSONG"TM Musical called "When the World Began".

Our middle school added electives this year and along with their basic music class three musical electives were among their choices. Musical Theater, Choir and Instrument Overload were the music electives this year.

Once again this year three classes were able to attend the Kansas City Symphony's Educational programs Kinder Konzert, Young People's Concert and Link Up.

Birthdays this week: Today we celebrate all that you with God's help, have accomplished.

Thank You

Thanks to all the wonderful people at St. James.

Thanks to all my friends who came to the funeral, for all the Masses and all the food, cards, and telephone calls, gifts and visits. All the love shown to me even a ride to the funeral home.

Chrystal Hampton was my granddaughter. She had juvenile diabetes at the age of 7 or 8 and each year it got worse. She suffered so much and in and out of hospitals.. The past year she was in the hospital until her death, with very few days at home. She died in the hospital at the age of 29 – her heart gave out.

She will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

My love and prayers.
