Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Do You Know?

We are moving ahead with our project to beautify the area around the new digital sign.

The landscape layout is 90% complete and our gardening team, led by Gretchen Lathrup, is making final adjustments. Mike Kromeich has laid out the site and spread four truckloads, roughly 56 yards, of top soil donated by Liberty Commons.

From the Pastor's Pen

With the flip of a page, we begin the month of October. Each year as October rolls around and I look ahead to the end of the month, my thoughts drift to western Kansas. Just down the road from the farm about an hour is Victoria, KS, and St. Fidelis Church, the Cathedral of the Plains. At the time of its dedication it seated 1,100 people which made it the largest church west of the Mississippi River. The building was begun in 1908 and completed in 1911. It is a beautiful church constructed of large native limestone blocks. St. Fidelis Catholic Church is not the seat for a bishop, so it is not a Cathedral. It received its nickname from William Jennings Bryan when he visited St. Fidelis in 1912. After several years of petition, St. Fidelis was named a minor Basilica in 2014.

Why do I even mention this church? It is a beautiful church with Romanesque design containing German windows and works of art, Austrian hand carved stations of the cross, and an Italian marble altar. Having grown up in the area and being of German descent, it is very much a part of our faith and traditions. I think of it because not so much what one sees but what lies beneath it. Although I may never step foot in certain Haunted Houses, I still like reading about them. The story of St. Fidelis Church goes that the youth group used to host a Haunted House in the steam tunnels that ran under the church. It was dark, spooky, scary crazy fun and the best part, no one had to do any decorating. The space itself was dark and scary and the banging of the pipes just added to the ambiance. So every year as Halloween rolls around and Haunted House invitations start arriving, my mind wonders about those dark spooky tunnels. I wonder if they still open the tunnels for a Haunted House or just give the quiet tour of the church? It's just one of those fun traditions of the season.

Another great tradition of this season is a hay rack ride and bonfires. With the weather changing and the days getting shorter, it is a great time to be together with family huddled around a fire and share stories. Many times, especially if a really dark night, we would take a ride on the hay rack and neighbors would see us coming and decide to try to join us. However, their joining was usually jumping aboard when we least expected it and scaring the daylight out of us. Oh what great memories!

What great memories does this season bring? With the changing of the leaves we know it will soon be winter and our days outside will be fewer. What great fun can we still have outside before the snow flies?

Peace, Fr. Timothy

HELP PROVIDE A BIG WELCOME FOR OUR PERU VISITORS NEXT WEEKEND

We are honored to have as guests this week three visitors from our sister parish, La Capilla de Preciosa Sangre near Lima, Peru. They are Padre Hilton, a Precious Blood Missionary and a married couple, Lorenza and Carlos. They have all welcomed visitors from St James into their homes on many occasions.

They will be attending all Masses next weekend - please take a few minutes to meet them in the parish center after Mass. Interpreters will be available.

You are also invited to a reception in their honor hosted by our own Knights of Columbus starting at noon on Sunday, October 16 followed by a slide presentation from our three visitors.

Let's try for a big turn out, showing them an awesome American hospitality.

Liturgy/Music Office

Singing is an Expression of Joy

In Colossians 3:16, St. Paul exhorts the faithful assembled in expectation of their Lord's return to sing together. He says, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly..., singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God."

Our relationship with God is one of love, and whether we sing loudly or softly, on pitch or out of tune, sing! St. Augustine very rightly says that, "it is natural for a lover to sing." We might also remember the ancient proverb that tells us "those who sing pray twice."

So sing your praise, your love song, to God - He will surely be pleased.

Children's Choir

If your child wants to be part of the fun, there's still time! Come to practice on Saturday, October 15 at 10 am in the church and we will register you on the spot. Contact Lori Tajchman for more information.

Children's Choir Schedule:

10/15 - Practice at 10 am
10/16 - 11 am Mass
10/22 - No Practice
10/25 - Practice at 10 am

Someone is Watching and Wondering

A common request I receive as the RCIA Director is "When will you teach me the Catholic prayers. Never quite sure what is being requested, I ask for an explanation. A frequent response is, "You know, like the Rosary." Further, when I introduce the Mass as the most common communal prayer of the Church I receive some very surprised looks.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes four basic types of prayer: blessing-adoration, petition, intercession, and thanksgiving-praise. In prayers of blessing-adoration we exalt the greatness of God, and acknowledge our dependence on Him in all things (eg: the Gloria). Prayers of petition are requests to God for what we need (both spiritual, physical and emotional). However, petitions should always include a statement of our openness to accept God's will. Intercession is a prayer of petition which leads us to pray as Jesus did. Like Jesus, we are not concerned with our needs, but rather with the needs of others. Just as we ask the saints to intercede for us, we, in turn, intercede for our fellow Christians, asking God to shower His mercy on them by answering their requests. Prayers of thanksgiving-praise are perhaps the most neglected of the four types. Other than grace before meals, we should thank God throughout the day for His many gifts, and through praise, acknowledge God as God. Paragraph 2639 of the Catechism states that praise "lauds God for his own sake and gives him glory, quite beyond what he does, but simply because HE IS." The Mass and other liturgies of the church moves between these four types of prayer. Our individual prayer should also incorporate blessing-adoration, petition, intercession, and thanksgiving-praise.

St. Thérèse of Lesieux wrote "prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy." St. Damascene echoed her with similar words: "Prayer is the raising of ones mind and heart to God. . . (praying) out of the depths of a contrite heart." For me these words capture the very heart of prayer. In prayer I raise my mind and heart to God, baring my innermost thoughts and feelings, asking for forgiveness and healing, praying with a contrite heart. I know I cannot hide from God, so why not speak to Him honestly as I would to a trusted friend. In whom can I place my trust if not God. Catholic prayer is all about our conversation with a loving Father, recognizing our very human need for God to be God.

Recently I was sorting through my reference books and I found A Prayer for New Stephen Ministers, which I had used for a bookmark. I was struck by how this prayer incorporates the four basic types of prayer of the Catholic Church: "We praise you Lord Jesus. . . fill these ministers with your love and care. . . we pray for them in your name. . . thank you Lord, for the gift of your spirit." If you are still concerned that you aren't praying Catholic prayers here are 10 suggestions: Sign of the Cross, Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be, Acts of Faith, Hope, Charity, and Contrition, Grace before and after meals, Guardian Angel prayer, and of course, don't forget the Mass.

Your sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Our Lady of Fatima

Praying the Rosary for America...

As human efforts fail to solve America's key problems, we turn to God, through His Holy Mother, asking His urgent help.

The American TFP - America Needs Fatima - WWW.TFP.ORG

Please join the Public Square Rosary Crusade as we pray for our nation

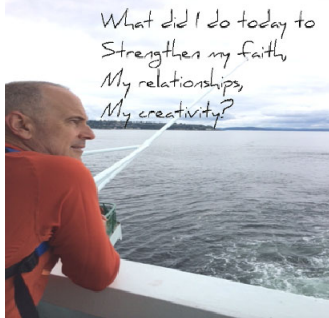

When: Saturday, October 15
 Time: 12 Noon (Please be there by 11:40am)
 Where: NE Corner of Hwy 152 and Flintlock in front of Qdoba; Park in at the south end of the Target parking lot

The United States is in great need of public prayer, repentance and conversion. We must ask God to save America through the Rosary of His Most Holy Mother.

Public Prayer is Powerful!

As Saint Louis Marie de Montfort stated: "Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy, and Holy Mother Church, guided by the Holy Spirit, has always advocated public prayer in times of public tragedy and suffering."

What to know

If you missed last month's parent meetings, please contact me in the parish office as soon as you can, so that you can be added to the make up meeting list.

There will be a signup genius sent around in the next few weeks so that you can select your preferred Reconciliation service date. Shortly after that, we'll be signing up for readiness sessions. We will use the email address that you provided at the parent meeting--if you would like to receive these emails at a second email, shoot me a quick email and let me know.

If you did attend the meeting, and your child was not baptized at St James, you will want to get that certificate turned in as soon as you can so that you can avoid being on my Nagging Email list. It's not pretty.

Haunt Fest

October 26th, 6 to 7:30 pm

This year marks our 3rd annual Haunt Fest, a cooperative venture between our St James school and our middle school Faith Sharing groups, as well as a lot of other folks who come together to make for a fun evening! Our Knights of Columbus are hosting a chili supper/hot dog & chili dog feast that night, our middle school students are working on a spooooky haunted house, and lots of other fun stuff for kids. Best of all, we'll have Trunk-or-Treating in the parking lot!

For those unfamiliar with Trunk-or-Treating, families decorate their car trunk in Halloween style, and then pass out candy to kids who trick-or-treat down the aisle. It's fun, it's a great way to share the holiday with your friends and fellow parishioners. Everybody gets to dress up and wear fun costumes, and we all eat waaaaay too much candy!
