Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Do You Know?

The flat roofs (TPO) are complete on the gym and middle school. We await the TPO manufacturer's inspection for guaranty purposes.

Roofers have completed the shingled area on the East wing of the school and will complete the Social Hall by May 31.

We hope to begin the replacement of the church roof within the next week.

The boundary fence is staked out. Installation should begin by June 1st or 2nd.

Thank You,
Jim Newell, Operations Manager

Growing in Awareness of Laudato Si' On Care of Our Common Home

Presented by Biagio Mazza

In Laudato Si', Pope Francis calls us back to our basic responsibility to carry out our mission as partners with God in caring for our common home. How have we carried out that mission? What needs to be done to ensure that creation not only is viable and hospitable for us today but for all those who will come after us.

Biagio will present the basic outline and thrust of this significant encyclical by exploring Pope Francis' assessment of how we are carryout our responsibility to care for our common home.

From the Pastor's Pen

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast summarizes who we are as Catholics/ Christians. We believe in a God who has revealed Himself to us in a relationship – of Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

God our Creator sent His Son, Jesus into our world as a human being to experience everything we experience as individuals. And God has given us the power of the Holy Spirit, God's presence within us. Every time we pray, every time we enter Church, and begin and end our Liturgy, the Sign of the Cross is prominent.

May this feast help us reflect on the relationships in our own lives – and be grateful for the presence of God within us and among us.

I Hope the summer is off to a good start, or at least a new routine – realizing that sports and family activities occupy so much of our time. But hopefully it's an opportunity to enjoy the outside and a little change of pace!

Thanks to all who are so very faithful to your building pledge each and every month. Because of your faithfulness, we are getting very excited about our breaking ground within the next year! As always, the cost of construction climbs, but hopefully we'll have 50% of the cost (cash on hand) by next Spring.

Thanks for being such good and faithful stewards. You'll be hearing more about our exciting building plans and designs as it gets closer to Fall!

May you and your families know God's Blessings this summer!

Peace, Fr. Mike

Today's Psalm - Daniel 3

Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever;
And blessed is your holy and glorious name,
praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages.

Blessed are you in the temple of your holy glory,
praiseworthy and glorious above all forever.

Blessed are you on the throne of your kingdom,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

Blessed are you who look into the depths
from your throne upon the cherubim,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

Reflection

This Canticle (psalm) found in the third chapter of the Book of Daniel is a magnificent hymn in praise of God's transcendent glory.

Sung by the three young men condemned to the fiery furnace for their fidelity to the God of Israel, the Canticle evokes the holiness and power of the Creator, who dwells among his people in his holy temple in Jerusalem.

*This prophetic celebration of God's closeness to his People
prefigures the coming of the Son of God,
who in the fullness of time
"took flesh and dwelt among us."*

*In her Liturgy the Church in every age takes up this song of gratitude for God's merciful love,
which guides all history to its appointed end.*

Forever Grateful,
Danny Baker

Someone is Watching and Wondering

The fifty days of Easter came to an end last Sunday as we celebrated Pentecost and the Birth of the Church. Today we begin Summer/Ordinary time, followed by Fall/Ordinary time and the end of the liturgical year on December 2nd. It may seem like Ordinary time is truly ordinary, but in fact it is during these weeks that the special character of Sunday is experienced; there are no special themes to distract from the wonder of the original meaning of Sunday as the Lord's Day. It is also during this period of counted time that we celebrate four Solemnities of the Lord, Trinity Sunday or the Solemnity of the Trinity, the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), the Feast of the Sacred Heart, and Christ the King. Today is the first of these solemnities, Trinity Sunday.

The doctrine of the Trinity evolved in the 4th and 5th centuries when the Arian heresy, which denied that Jesus was equal to God, swept through the church. Before the year 1000, a special feast devoted to the Trinity was celebrated in the Frankish kingdom on the Sunday following Pentecost and was promulgated for the universal church by Pope John XXII in 1334.

There are two traditions associated with the Trinity: the Sign of the Cross, popular since the early centuries, with the Trinitarian formula "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen," and the doxology an ancient prayer, first used in the Eastern Church, "Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit." The concluding words, "As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be, world without end, Amen," were added in the 4th century and was introduced in the Western Church in the 5th century. There are also many symbols used for the Trinity. One that is most often depicted in art and first used in the 6th century is an old man (father), a young man (son) and a dove (the Holy Spirit). Other common symbols include arrangements of three, eg. three interlocking circles.

Just for fun this week, look around church, your home, in nature, or search trademarks for examples of symbols for the Holy Trinity. See how many you find; they are everywhere.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Pop Tab Collection Program For Ronald McDonald House

We recently received this note from the Ronald McDonald House. "Thank you for supporting the families we assist with your thoughtful donation. Our goal is to keep families close and comfortable when dealing with the trauma of a sick child. Gifts like yours help us provide that assistance."

You can help support the Ronald McDonald House by collecting the little tabs you pull to open soda, beer, soup or other aluminum cans.

The funds generated from recycling these aluminum gems help offset the House's expenses. Collecting tabs can be an easy and fun project.

Tabs can be dropped off in the basket on the table in the Narthex.

Our Faith In Action

This weekend, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, gives us a chance to reflect on ways to LIVE OUT THE TRINITY.

Unity, Community, and Equality

Unity: They are three distinct persons yet they are one in essence. We are distinct individuals from various backgrounds, levels, ideas and dispositions. However we are united in one Christian community. Our diversity should be at the service of a functional unity because as Paul would say, in Christ our diversities give way to unity.

Community: There is no time the Father works without the Son and the Holy Spirit. That is why you will hear the Father saying twice "Let us". Our Lord Jesus would also attest that he does whatever he sees the Father doing. We should learn to work together as members of the same community. No one is an Island. We need each other for growth and development.

Equality: In the Godhead there is absolute equality given the fact that they have one essence. Within our human experience we all share in one humanity but often we notice that we keep creating unjustifiable barriers of inequality between the "haves" and the "have nots". Often some people see others as less human than they are. From the Trinity we learn to see ourselves as equals sharing the common gift of life given to us by God.

Natural Family Planning Course Beginning Soon

The Catholic Church prohibits sterilization, the birth control pill, the IUD, and other forms of contraception. But why? In an effort to give practical help to married and engaged couples to live out the teachings of the Church, a 3-part series of classes in the Sympto-Thermal method of family planning begins June 16.

You are encouraged to attend the course at St. Andrew Parish, 6415 NE Antioch Rd., Gladstone, beginning on Friday, June 16 at 6:30pm. Reasonable course fee; financial assistance available. To learn more about these or on-line classes visit www.live-the-love.org or call Christina or Michael Paoletti at 816-507-1591 (christinapaoletti@gmail.com).

Pre-registration for the classes is required at www.ccli.org

Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious!

July 7th - 7 pm

Cost: FREE

Last year we tried out this "interactive movie" thing with The Sound of Music. I'll be honest, I thought it was something that only families who enjoy being silly or maybe especially musical families would like. Was I ever wrong! Even the musically challenged like myself had a blast! This isn't just one of those old fogey "let's all sing along to this" type things. It's an interactive movie, so not only do we sing along with the songs, we also react to what's happening on screen. We have goodie bags for each attendee with the props that you'll need to play along, and Danny Baker will be there to help lead us in singing. Your kids will love it and you'll make great memories!

We'll also have a costume contest (WITH PRIZES) for anyone who would like to dress up as their favorite character. I was extremely impressed last year with the creativity and style of quite a few of our parishioners! It's a ton of fun, so mark July 7th on your calendars so that you can join us!
