Registrations Begin For Youth Programs

Religious Education

RE Classes in our parish are open to all children from the age of 3 years (by 8-1-17) to those entering the 5th grade. Our Sunday morning classes run from 9 to 10:30 and include PreK through 5th grade. Our Wednesday evening session runs from 6:30 to 8pm and includes 1st through 5th grade.

PB&J (Prayer, Bibles Stories & Jammin') is a unique and immensely fun and educational Catholic Faith Formation program for infants, toddlers and preschoolers with their parents or caregivers, taught through music and movement, song and instrument exploration. Join us for weekly classes of prayer, Bible stories, Mass postures and Liturgical colors. Classes begin the first week in September.

High School Youth Group meets the 1st, 3rd, and 5th Sundays following the 6:00pm Mass. No registration is required. All high schoolers are welcome to meet and enjoy fun activities, learn more about our faith and participate in service projects.

Confirmation Preparation is offered to those in grade 9 and above. Meetings are held the 2nd and 4th Sundays following the 6:00pm Mass from 7:00 – 8:45pm.

Children's Choir is open to children in Kindergarten through 5th Grades; 6-8th Grade students are invited to assist as Youth Helpers and Cantors-in-Training.

We typically lead the 11am Mass music on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of each month, and practice on Saturdays from 10 to 11am. We also sing on Christmas Eve, Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday and Easter Sunday. Registration forms and calendars are available in the Narthex. Practices begin August 19.

Faith Sharing Groups for 6th to 8th grade meet Wednesday from 6:30 to 8:00pm. Group time includes prayer, exploration of our faith, reflection, games and social activities.

Little Saints Playgroup is a gathering of infants, toddlers and preschoolers and their caregivers who meet for informal play and socialization, and to enjoy an occasional celebration.

No registration required, but to stay current on our schedule, add your name to our email list (located in the Narthex) and pick up a schedule. The first meeting is September 11 in the Prayer Garden.

Registrations Begin Next Weekend

We have programs for youth of all ages, from pre-school through high school. Informational materials and registration forms are on the registration table in the Narthex and also on the St. James website.

Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Do You Know?

Construction equipment parked at different locations off the Commercial Road and across from the new church location is being used for the storm sewer project to the East and has nothing to do with the start of construction on the St. James Church.

We will keep the parish apprised of the projected start times on "our" construction as we move forward..

Thank You,

From the Pastor's Pen

Greetings from Chicago!!! And yes, it's just as hot here! I, along with Fr. Steve dos Santos and two men interested in our community are spending a Mission Week at Precious Blood Center of Reconciliation. Fr. Steve and I invited inquirers to join us for the week to learn about our community and one of our ministries. We spent the day at PBMR and evenings and meals at our Formation House.

Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation began in 2000 when a few friends – priests of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood together with sisters from various Precious Blood communities associated with the Precious Blood Leadership Conference – sat down and shared stories of the suffering they had witnessed and experienced, and of their work for reconciliation. They shared stories of many years of jail ministry, of community renewal, of inner city parish work, of retreat ministry for reconciliation. Out of those shared experiences was born the dream of the Ministry of Reconciliation – what would it look like to have a ministry whose purpose was to work for healing and reconciliation in the midst of the violence and alienation of our world?

In September 2004, PBMR moved into the former school of St. John of God at 51st and Elizabeth Streets. The building housed a collaborative effort including Catholic Charities, Youth Outreach Services, and Second Chance Alternative High School. Due to economic reasons, many of those programs are no longer here. Today 51st and Elizabeth is the home of the Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation and Second Chance Alternative HS.

This space has become known as the Precious Blood Center, and has become a place of safety and welcome for many people and groups to gather, to pray, and to tell their stories. We value the relationships of many organizations and community members as we strive to create a more restorative and inclusive community. Truly we strive to be a welcoming community.

Today the Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation staff is diverse in gender, ethnicity, age, experience, and background. We celebrate that diversity. (From pbmr.org)

This past week we had the opportunity to tour the campus, participate in circle ministry, hear the stories of the youth and young adults who gather, as well as the stories of the mothers of incarcerated sons and daughters.

May the Spirit of Hope and Reconciliation continue to be alive in work we do.

My prayers are with you today, Fr. Timothy

CHALLENGES TO UNITY

During my time at the NPM Convention in Cincinnati I had the privilege of listening to Dr. Tim O'Malley from the University of Notre Dame.

He spoke of the challenges to unity we face in our various ministries.

Here are some key points I took away from his plenum address.

- Does my ministry foster unity or discord?
- Am a serving to support the Church?

An evangelizing community is joyful!
They celebrate the small things.

- How are you participating in your faith?

From 2010-2016 there has been a steady decrease in sacramental participation.

To many teens, the story of Jesus is much like that of Santa.

How then are parents who are not "actively participating in their faith," surprised when their kids don't stay? If you do nothing, you pass on nothing.

So how do WE respond? 3 ways:

1. We are not saviors of the human condition. We can NOT do it alone.
2. How does our catechetical formation teach people to worship?
SINGING & PRAYING
3. We need to delight in the Word of Christ.

All of life is formed in LOVE!
NEW EVANGELIZATION.

Forever Grateful,
Danny Baker

Someone is Watching and Wondering

The past few weeks I found myself reflecting on my prayer life and I realize it is a bit unconventional. Although I use formulaic prayers, I mostly spend prayer time in quiet reading, reflection, or simply taking in the world outside my windows. I must confess, there are even times when I am so relaxed and peaceful that I fall asleep. Other times, especially when I am troubled or having difficulty finding answers, I pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament where I feel a renewed sense of hope. When I found this picture, however, I thought of the words to a hymn, "Here I am Lord, is it I Lord; I have heard you calling in the night. I will go Lord, if you lead me. I will hold your people in my heart." I continue to be amazed at the mysterious ways of the Holy Spirit, working in my life.

These past few weeks, I have also been reading Tucked in the Rocks: Life Lessons from the Land of Enchantment, by Benjamin Berinti, C.P.P.S. given to me a few months ago by a very dear friend. I highly recommend this book to anyone looking to enhance time spent in prayer, looking for spiritual guidance, or reflecting on what it means to follow Jesus' teachings. Here is a sample, from the book, which seems to be a perfect caption for this picture:

"On this side of the window's panes. . . I sit. Framed, calming and centering. On that side of the window's panes. . . it sits. World, spreading out under the haze and windswept earth. Framed, too, by jagged sacred mountains of Native faith. World, forced out centrifugally, by unending tumult of striving, borrowing, spending, yearning, wandering. Not all calming or centering, but swirling – an occasional gust of hope ratcheting up the sound. And between us, standing sentinel, the Body and Blood, Framed, too, by a box, carved and polished and gilded, but yearning to be swept up and out through the frame and into the distance, where food and drink need multiplied again for the thousands, arranged now, not in beds of daisies and lilies of the field, but in plots of concrete, adobe, and dusty, parched despair. On this side of the window's pane. . . I sit wondering, as the liting hawk glides by, held up by grace and freedom, who will dismantle these frames and let the in out and the out in. And a voice echoes, through the window's panes (and pains), bounced from a marble, seven-stepped sanctuary set amidst pasture and heart that summer's day after its (my) birth, and through twenty-two years of cavernous miles and God knows what – "Here I am Lord, send me!"

I have come to realize that if I place my trust and life into His hands, he will not only send me but He will lead the way.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

St. James Midtown - New Thrift Store

Donations Needed

Members of our sister parish, St. James Midtown, have opened and are operating a new non-profit thrift store in the 39th and Troost area in Kansas City to serve the less fortunate and the elderly. The store, at 3922 Troost Ave., is located around the corner from the church and was formerly occupied by the old St. Vincent DePaul Thrift Store.

St. James Midtown parishioners spoke at Masses last weekend sharing information about the store's purpose and requesting our support and prayers in this endeavor.

They are in need of clothing, household goods and small appliances and "what have you". Of particular need is men's clothing.

Please bring your donations through the end of August and put them in the Mallen Room next to the parish office. Financial donations are also accepted.

Also needed are volunteers, to find out more or to volunteer call Toni Wurth at 816-531-5485.

HOPE Gift Cards We'd Like Your Feedback

We'd like your thoughts and ideas on how we can continue to grow the H.O.P.E Gift Card program.

What can we do to encourage more parishioners to use HOPE cards?

Send an email to Daryl in the parish office at daryl.sweetland@stjames-liberty.org or take a few minutes to complete the Feedback Form found in the Narthex and deposit it in the HOPE Feedback Box.

Thank You

Back to School Items - Tax Free Weekend: August 4 - 6

Did you know that the Back to School Season is the 2nd largest selling season for retailers ?

This means that prices for back to school items, whether it be school supplies, clothing, and shoes, are incredibly competitive this time of year.

And, what's even better is that this coming Friday, Saturday, and Sunday (Aug. 4 - 6), no sales tax will be charged on certain "back to school" items.

Here's what qualifies: any article of clothing under $100, school supplies up to $50 per purchase; computer software up to $350; personal computers up to $1,500, and computer peripheral devices up to $1,500.

- With school starting very soon, here are 4 things to do right now to get ready for the fall term:
- 1 - Take an inventory of what your kids already have.
  - 2 - Make a list of what you need to buy.
  - 3 - Buy HOPE Gift Cards for all of the stores where you plan to shop.
  - 4 - Go shopping and save while the sales are still running, prices are low, and your purchases will be tax free

We have HOPE gift cards in stock for most of the stores where you'll likely shop – whether it's Walmart, Penny's, Target, Macy's, Kohl's, Office Depot, Best Buy, HyVee, or Price Chopper – we have them all.

UPDATE FROM OUR PERU SISTER PARISH

Padre Hilton recently wrote that our sister parish, Our Lady of the Holy Family, had a successful fundraiser in June. Earnings from this event along with our donation of $1,000 will allow our sister parish to soon begin work on improving space for their religious education program. Padre even sent pictures to share with you.

Many parishioners got involved selling raffle tickets ahead of the event while others were involved on the day of the event providing food, drink and entertainment. Many Peruvians enjoy raffles as they are an opportunity to win great prizes, have a meal, socialize, and help their church to grow.

Confirmation News

This year, we are doing two different Confirmation prep classes. After discussing last year's Confirmation prep with the Confirmandis, as well as the parents, many were wanting a longer program. Therefore, we are offering a longer program starting in September and meeting every other week until April. This program will allow the Confirmandi to get to know each other better, have more discussion time, be able to ask more questions, as well as take time going through the prep. We will also still be offering the shortened program starting in January. Registration forms for both programs will be in the Narthex next weekend. You need to register for either program now.

Volunteers Needed

As we get closer to time for registrations for this next school year to begin, it's time to begin putting rosters of volunteers together. I have had several people step up, but there are still more spots to fill. I would ask you to give some thought to whether God may be calling you to this ministry.

We are also looking for parents to volunteer to be present in the classroom. You would not be leading the class, you don't need to make a major time commitment, just plan to come spend the class with your child a time or two. One of the responses to the surveys that you all filled out on the last day was that you felt that you needed the support of other parents so that you weren't alone in teaching your child what it means to be Catholic. We invite you to join us in the classroom so that you can have that backup. It will keep you in the loop on what's going on in the classroom, what kinds of things their class is talking about, as well as let you see how your child is doing so you can reinforce those concepts at home. So maybe you could be thinking about that as well – there is a role here with your name on it!

Back to School Shower for Don Bosco ESL Here's how you can help!

Thinking back to Lent of last year, we mentioned that our Lenten charity, the Don Bosco Center's ESL program, goes through tons of notebooks and pencils. We'd like to shower them with donations of notebooks and pencils, and what better time to do that than at Back To School shopping time when all of those things are on sale for very low prices??

So while you are shopping for school supplies, please consider putting a few notebooks and some pencils in the cart for our friends at the Don Bosco Center as they work hard to learn our very complicated language! We have a donation drop box in the narthex that will be there through Back to School season – your donations are always gratefully appreciated!
