From the Pastor's Pen

Happy New Year! What great joys and wonders will this New Year hold in store for each of us? I once asked my grandpa what he wished for the New Year. With a shy grin on his face he told me, "It's just like a birthday wish. If you tell someone, it won't come true." As a youngster I had no trouble believing that but at the same time I questioned if he had really made a New Year's wish or was just blowing hot air! Once again it is a time of hope and looking forward and dreaming. Whether or not our New Year's wishes or resolutions come true for this year, we still need that time to dream and hope and wish, something to look forward to. In celebrating this Christmas season, we welcomed the gift of the Christ child, we recognized the presence of Christ in the world around us, and we look for to His coming once again. It is hope, it is promise, it is dream all wrapped up in One.

One family tradition that I still uphold is to offer a toast at midnight to the New Year. Grandpa's favorite spirit was Canadian Mist. One year he offered me a shot to toast. I gladly accepted and clunked the glass and downed the shot. Wow! Not my favorite, but after his death, I got the bottle I had bought him for a birthday gift. Some 20 years later, I still have that bottle, and each year I offer that same toast. Maybe this year I'll taste it again! Another tradition was spending New Year's Day on the farm relaxing and enjoying one another's company. We would gather around to watch the parade. We would have food galore to munch on and then catch a game or two of football. If the weather was warm enough we would have our own game of farmer football outside. If not, it was a lazy afternoon inside. The next day it was back to business as usual as the livestock had to be fed and kept warm. In a day or two, we were back in school and it seemed the biggest challenge was to remember what year it was.

As we settle into this New Year, what great joys will we have to look forward to? What great challenges lie before us? What did you wish for at New Year's? May God's blessings be upon each of us as we embrace the New Year and look forward to all that is holds in store of us. Fr. Timothy

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Thank you!

A special thanks to all who came and decorated the church and gym for our Christmas Masses.

-Danny Baker
Director of Liturgy and Music

We've all heard the Christmas story many times, and we are not shocked to see Jesus in the manger, but then again it has been quite sanitized. The crèche has become a bucolic symbol with little sense of reality. Lost is the dinginess of a stable; lost are the smells and sounds of animals crowded together. In fact, we have mostly lost the reality that a stable in Bethlehem was little more than a cave or stone basement. Yes, we have sanitized Jesus' birth, much like we sanitize His life. We try to turn Him into our own ideals and concepts of an other-worldly king with a perfect life. We all too often fail to see Him as a human being, with emotions, feelings, needs, desires, and fears. We clean Him up, take away His pain, and give Him perfect knowledge and understanding. We fail to understand that Jesus was dependent on His parents, that he needed direction and teachers, and He faced struggles in life, just like you and I. "The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him." (Luke 2:40)

Keeping Christmas Going

Christmas doesn't end Dec 25th.....It begins!

Do you still have your tree and lights up? Good news, you are perfectly in season, now keep them up and keep them ON for 2 more weeks.

The Twelve Days of Christmas begin with Christmas Eve on the evening of December 24 and continue until the feast of Epiphany (or Three Kings Day) Jan 6th. The actual Christmas season continues until the Feast of the Baptism of Christ, which in the present form of the Roman Rite is celebrated on the Sunday after Epiphany, falling on January 11th this year.

Keep the Christmas lights glowing in your home and in your heart!

Another way you can also keep the season going by celebrating Epiphany in your home. In most Latin American countries, this is the big gift giving holiday. The 3 Kings are where we get the idea of giving gifts. In my house, on the night before everyone leaves some grass and water in a shoebox for the camels. The 3 Kings come in the night and leave small gifts, such as books or small toys. I can not say I have ever received any frankincense or gold.....maybe someday

Corporal Works of Mercy for January: Shelter the Homeless

Thanks to the overwhelming response to the request for suitcases for foster children from Liberty churches, Love INC has been able to supply all of foster children in Clay county and the children in the care of other agencies as well! It's truly heartwarming that the churches in Liberty came through for kids in need!

Love INC, has a shortage of hygiene items. When folks come to the food pantry, they are often living in their cars, as there is no homeless shelter north of the river. We will be organizing a drive during January to put together just those items.

We are continuing to collect candles and hand warmers for the people served by the Uplift Organization in Kansas City. Candles can be new or used--Uplift will melt them down and pour them into small can candles that can be used for light and heat.

First Communion Parent Meeting Reminder:

Our parent meetings are Monday, January 12th and Wednesday, January 14th. Registration will be from 6 to 7 pm. The cost is $20 for the set of 3 books.

PB&J

PB&J has openings in the following classes: Tuesday at 10 am and 6 pm, and Wednesday at 9 am and 5:30 pm. PB&J is for parents and their children (infants through pre-school age). Join us as we teach our Catholic faith through music, movement and instrument exploration. Contact Lori Tajchman for more information or to register.

Little Saints Snow Day:

Thursday, Jan. 22, 10 to 11:30 am, in the Social Hall Bring the kids in their favorite warm pajamas! We'll stay warm creating indoor snowball fights, building inside snowmen and watching a short movie. This month we stress the Corporal Work of Mercy "Shelter the Homeless". Please bring a candle or hand-warmers to donate to the homeless and the cold. Contact Lori Tajchman to RSVP.
