Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Communicating With You

As good stewards of our resources, we wish to make better use of electronic communications to provide current information to you. This not only saves on our postage costs but also allows us to communicate with you more regularly.

Therefore, this year we will be sending out our newsletters as well as other information electronically via "email blast."

We have your correct email address if you have been receiving the emails we have sent out during the past few months.

If you are not receiving our emails and wish to receive them, please contact either Katie at Katie@stjames-liberty.org or Loretta at Loretta@stjames-liberty.org and provide your name and correct email address.

If you do not have access to email, you will automatically receive a hard copy of our newsletters in the mail.

From the Pastor's Pen

With a couple of weeks already into 2015, I want to thank all of our good and faithful parishioners who were so very generous in 2014, especially towards the end of the year. Our Building Fund saw a real boost, and hopefully will continue to grow so that our dreams for a new church will become a reality. Our heating systems required unexpected repairs during the holidays. Thank you for being faithful to your operating fund commitment.

A special thanks to those who have contributed to my request to help the poor and needy. Because of your generosity we were able to help a number of families who often 'fall through the cracks'. That's what living our faith is all about.

This weekend we are hearing from Nathan Stanley, a young man who grew up in St. James parish. Nathan has dedicated his life to ministering to college and university level students in the FOCUS program--- helping young people grow in their Catholic faith. We are very proud of Nathan and his wife Lauren, and thanks in advance for your generosity to help them in this ministry!

We at St. James are experiencing a change in the administration at our school. Molly Doherty has been principal here at St. James for the last fifteen years, and we are grateful for her leadership. She has chosen to move on following this school year, and will be taking another education position in the Kansas City area. Molly will be truly missed, for she has been a vital part of Catholic education in our diocese for many years, and has lived out her calling to care for children and families in our Catholic schools. It will be hard to 'fill her shoes' here at St. James, but we are very grateful to our dedicated faculty and staff, who will carry on, and hopefully we can hire a new principal with that same passion for children and to guide St. James School into the future. We have an excellent 'search' committee dedicated to hiring a new principal---so please keep us in your prayers. Please take a moment to thank Molly for her dedication to passing on the gift of faith and Catholic education to our young people. Molly, Shawn and family will continue to be faithful stewards of our parish community. Thanks so much Molly, for your dedication and service here at St. James, and in the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph!

This past weekend we had a tremendous celebration of Alan Gremli's life----and so we continue to lift up Nancy and her family. Alan's death, as well as the death of their niece Colleen was a real tragedy---but this community of St. James has rallied around their family and it is the promise of our faith that Alan is celebrating New Life in God's Kingdom, watching over his family and this community of St. James, to whom he was so very dedicated! May you and your families continue to know God's Goodness and Love!

Peace, Fr. Mike

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Have you ever wondered “Why has — happened?”

Feel free to fill in the blank with anything for which you have no answer.

Now, look at this photograph. Can you identify it? Perhaps you recognize one of the many photos taken of deep, dark outer space with the Hubble Telescope, but still don't know what it is. At times this is how I feel when I try to understand God, and all the things that happen in our everyday lives. Why do children have cancer; why did someone die so suddenly, or so young; why is there still so much violence in our world; why do some people have so much while others don't even have enough food to eat or a safe place to live. I could go on and on, and I'm sure you have your own list. The point I am trying to make, however, is that not a single person reading this can possibly know with absolute certainty what the next moment, hour, day, week or year will bring. Yet we continue to stumble through life, looking for meaning, searching for answers, and ignoring the simplicity that is eternally present. God loves us, cares for us, and will lead us.

As I look at the above photo, I am awe struck and amazed. Likewise, as I listen to these words from a favorite hymn “Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, what God has ready for those who love Him,” I am also awe struck and amazed. Truth be told, I have no idea what God has ready for me, yet I continue to be amazed at His promise of life, of a world and humanity that is good, and of being eternally held in His love. I know it is true, God never leaves us, even when we turn away and try to shut Him out of our lives. He is our loving parent, and I believe He desires for us to know and love Him. If we center our lives around Him, admit our limitations and sinfulness, and open ourselves to His love I believe our doubts, fears, loneliness, and darkness will be replaced with His light. It is His light that will guide us, and we will be changed. As we are changed, He lives in and through us, His light shines brighter and brighter, and others will also see and believe. Never allow fear and darkness to replace your true hope and light. We don't need all the answers, but we do need to believe and trust that God is so much more than our human limits can realize.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

TIP FOR USING OUR NEW WEBSITE

www.stjames-liberty.org

The home page of our new website has an interactive slide show that features information about special events, programs, and community outreach activities at St. James.

To learn more about the event, program, or activity, simply click on the picture. Or, you can also click on the text panel on the right that's related to the slide to find out more.

This is an easy and fast way to quickly find out what's going on at St. James.

The St. James Pastoral Council would like to send out a Hearty Thank You to everyone that participated in the Winter Coat Drive that we had in December. We had an enormous amount of Coats and Winter Clothing that was donated, in which we packed multiple vehicles and brought them down to St. Mary's Food Kitchen where everything was set out and given to the homeless/needy. It was VERY WELL Received. We even took more coats down after the Holidays to Bishop Sullivan Center as the items kept coming in. Thank you again.

Our Faith In Action

Coming to St James Church
January 19th at 7pm

Vase of Fresh Flowers is an original play written and performed by woman involved with the Keeler Woman's Center. It is an affirmation of the power, beauty and spirit of women and a celebration of the vital role that Keeler Woman's Center plays in our community. The play focuses on the many different paths journeyed and the courage and strength of women who seek purpose and find meaningfulness in their lives. The performance mixes the symbolism of flowers and the imagery of vases to reveal life stories and life experiences of different women. Through movement, music and spoken word, the play engages the audience in the intimacies and struggles of growing from childhood to womanhood.

A cast of 10 women from the Keeler Women's Center is touring this 40 minute play throughout the Kansas City area. Vase of Fresh Flowers is an interactive theatre experience and includes a post-performance talk-back session focused on issues raised in the play; domestic violence, addictions, survivorship. Written and directed by Deb Campbell, this play is part of a drama therapy program offered at the Keeler Women's Center.

Keeping Christmas Going

Christmas doesn't end Dec 25th.....It begins!

Do you still have your tree and lights up? Good news, you are perfectly in season, now keep them up and keep them ON for 2 more weeks. The Twelve Days of Christmas begin with Christmas Eve on the evening of December 24 and continue until the feast of Epiphany (or Three Kings Day) Jan 6th. The actual Christmas season continues until the Feast of the Baptism of Christ, which in the present form of the Roman Rite is celebrated on the Sunday after Epiphany, falling on January 11th this year.

Keep the Christmas lights glowing in your home and in your heart!

Another way you can also keep the season going by celebrating Epiphany in your home. In most Latin American countries, this is the big gift giving holiday. The 3 Kings are where we get the idea of giving gifts. In my house, on the night before everyone leaves some grass and water in a shoebox for the camels. The 3 Kings come in the night and leave small gifts, such as books or small toys. I can not say I have ever received any frankincense or gold.....maybe someday

Corporal Works of Mercy for January: Shelter the Homeless

Thanks to the overwhelming response to the request for suitcases for foster children from Liberty churches, Love INC has been able to supply all of foster children in Clay county and the children in the care of other agencies as well! It's truly heartwarming that the churches in Liberty came through for kids in need!

Love INC, has a shortage of hygiene items. When folks come to the food pantry, they are often living in their cars, as there is no homeless shelter north of the river. We will be organizing a drive during January to put together just those items.

We are continuing to collect candles and hand warmers for the people served by the Uplift Organization in Kansas City. Candles can be new or used--Uplift will melt them down and pour them into small can candles that can be used for light and heat.

First Communion Parent Meeting Reminder:

Our parent meetings are Monday, January 12th and Wednesday, January 14th. Registration will be from 6 to 7 pm. The cost is $20 for the set of 3 books.

PB&J

PB&J has openings in the following classes: Tuesday at 10 am and 6 pm, and Wednesday at 9 am and 5:30 pm. PB&J is for parents and their children (infants through pre-school age). Join us as we teach our Catholic faith through music, movement and instrument exploration. Contact Lori Tajchman for more information or to register.

Little Saints Snow Day:

Thursday, Jan. 22, 10 to 11:30 am, in the Social Hall Bring the kids in their favorite warm pajamas! We'll stay warm creating indoor snowball fights, building inside snowmen and watching a short movie. This month we stress the Corporal Work of Mercy "Shelter the Homeless". Please bring a candle or hand-warmers to donate to the homeless and the cold. Contact Lori Tajchman to RSVP.

Thus says the Lord:
All you who are thirsty,
come to the water!
All you who have no money, come, receive

Come to me
heedfully, listen, that you may have life.
