From the Pastor's Pen

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" — which translated means Teacher —, "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see."

John 1:38-39

We open our doors and invite others into our homes. We gather for birthday parties, anniversaries, family get-togethers, and for several other reasons. We also come together for funerals and goodbyes. We gather to support one another, to share stories, to celebrate, to catch up on what is going on in our lives, and sometimes just to be together. I enjoy being invited to join a family to celebrate some great milestone in their lives. I cherish the times I have been present to just be and offer support and encouragement. Over the years I have been in some really great homes and some not so great. But no matter the condition of the house, what always impresses me the most is the home that the family has created. I once remember telling someone as they apologized for the mess, "Hey I didn't come here to see the house, I came to see you."

We invite others into our lives. We share with them who we are and what we are about. In my work with vocations, I do the same to invite others to hear our story about our community, Missionaries of the Precious Blood. It is more than just seeing where we stay or live. It is sharing about who we are, our mission and charism. It is discovering within ourselves something more.

When Simon encountered Jesus, Jesus called him "Cephas" or Peter. It was as if he looked into his very being and saw something more. How willing are we to look into our own selves and truly see what God sees? When we approach one another, what do we see and recognize?

John pointed to Jesus and said, "Behold the Lamb of God." It was then that the two followed Jesus. These words draw us back to the mystery of our faith, the mystery of the Eucharist. As we come forward this day to receive the Body and Blood of Christ, may we cherish the gift we receive and hold it in awe and mystery and wonder and understanding. What are we seeking today? What are you seeking today?

My prayers are with you this day,

Fr. Timothy

January Blood Drive – KC Royals and You!

The Community Blood Center appreciates all that has been done and will be done by our donors to contribute to their efforts in saving lives of local patients. They have been issuing emergency requests for donors recently because of the blood shortage, and have recognized that our donors always do their best to come through for them. To say 'THANK YOU', the CBC is offering a great incentive for our January 27th blood drive and you won't want to miss this one! Each registered donor will receive two tickets to a Kansas City Royals game in April, 2015. Tickets will be mailed to the donor in March. The drive takes place on Tuesday, January 27th from 12:30-7:00pm in the social hall. Walk-ins are always welcome, but due to the anticipated response to this drive, appointments are highly encouraged so that the CBC can adequately staff this event and ensure each donor is attended to in a timely manner. So, please let us know if you will be attending this drive either by contacting Nikki Power at kpower@kc.rr.com or 816-407-1208, or by scheduling your appointment online at www.savealifenow.org using sponsor code 'stjames'. For medical eligibility questions, please call 1-800-245-7035. As always, volunteers are needed for childcare, serving refreshments and clean up. Please contact Nikki if you would like to help. Don't miss your chance to get tickets to watch our defending American League Champion Kansas City Royals and to help patients in our area! Thank you for your support of this ministry!

Someone is Watching and Wondering

I was recently surfing the internet for knit patterns, and found a wide variety of woven pieces. As I looked at the rich variety of colors, patterns and textures I was reminded of my life. Many times it seems to be totally disordered. I'm never quite sure what tomorrow will bring. Even when I try to carefully plan, my life seems to take a different, unexpected path. There are days that appear totally disordered and confusing. Yet, upon reflection, there seems to be a pattern, a thread which seems to bring everything together. A friend of mine, Lee, refers to "The Golden Thread" that weaves the pieces of our life together, a thread of love which gives life meaning and purpose, a thread that can never be broken, in spite of our brokenness, a thread that is God's work.

Curiosity got the better of me so I Googled, God the Master Weaver, and discovered many images and poems. I would like to share this one with you. I could not find the author, so I know not where to give credit. I did, however, find it quite beautiful and in keeping with my friend, Lee's idea.

"My life is but a weaving,
Between my Lord and me.
I didn't choose the colors;
He knew what they should be.
For He can view the pattern upon the upper side,
While I can see it only, on this, the under side.
Sometimes He weaves in sorrow,
Which does seem strange to me;
But I trust in His judgment and work on faithfully.
'Tis He who fills the shuttle; He knows just what is best,
So I have to weave in earnest and leave with Him the rest.
Not till the loom is silent, and the shuttles cease to fly
Shall God unroll the canvas and explain the reason why.
The dark threads are as needful
In the weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver in the pattern
He has planned."

May we faithfully trust, and yes perhaps be surprised, but in heartfelt gratitude, rejoice at His weaving in our lives.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

"Vase of Fresh Flowers" is an original play written and performed by women involved with the Keeler Woman's Center. It is an affirmation of the power, beauty and spirit of women and a celebration of the vital role that Keeler Woman's Center plays in our community. The play focuses on the many different paths journeyed and the courage and strength of women who seek purpose and find meaningfulness in their lives. The performance mixes the symbolism of flowers and the imagery of vases to reveal life stories and life experiences of different women. Through movement, music and spoken word, the play engages the audience in the intimacies and struggles of growing from childhood to womanhood

Keeler Women's Center is a ministry of Benedictine Sisters of Atchison, Kansas. Their mission is to empower women in the urban core of Kansas City, through education, advocacy, personal and spiritual development. The Keeler Women's Center offers a unique holistic approach to meeting the needs of women. All women, from all walks of life, are welcomed to the Keeler Center finding resources, finding each other, and finding a way to better their lives.

A cast of 10 women from the Keeler Women's Center is touring this 40 minute play throughout the Kansas City area. Vase of Fresh Flowers is an interactive theatre experience and includes a post-performance talk-back session focused on issues raised in the play; domestic violence, addictions, survivorship. Written and directed by Deb Campbell, this play is part of a drama therapy program offered at the Keeler Women's Center 2220 Central Ave #214, Kansas City, KS 66102 - (913) 906-8990.

"Vase of Fresh Flowers" will be performed, Monday, Jan 19 at 7pm in our Church.

St. James Funeral Dinner Ministry Volunteers Needed

As a parish community we are called to serve one another.

As family members grieve at the loss of their loved ones, the St. James Funeral Dinner Ministry helps to provide comfort and support by providing a dinner for the family and friends of the deceased. This outreach ministry is a precious work of mercy to help one another emotionally to "bury the dead".

This ministry is in need of people to assist with the dinners. Volunteers are assigned to one of three funeral dinner teams. Depending on the number of people on the team, they are not necessarily called each time it is their team's turn.

How You Can Help

Providing Food - The parish provides the meat and drinks; therefore volunteers are called upon to provide side dishes, breads, and desserts. For those who don't have time or are unable to prepare food, volunteering to provide food can be as simple as buying bread, chips, cookies, and even packaged side dishes such as potato salad.

Serving - Generally each team has 2 groups of volunteers (1) those who assist getting ready for the dinner by making drinks, setting up the buffet table, etc. and (2) those who serve the food, making sure that side dishes, desserts and drinks are refilled and cleaning up after the dinner.

To assist with this ministry, or find out more, contact one of the ministry team leads:

Mary Hover: 816-429-7874

Pat Cull: 816-781-3257

Ima Rahter: 816-781-2765

We thank you for considering becoming a part of this ministry.

We also extend our sincere thanks to our faithful volunteers who serve this ministry now and in the past. Without the dedication of all of you, we could not have successfully served the several hundred families who have looked to their parish community for support and comfort during a very difficult time.

Corporal Works of Mercy for January: Shelter the Homeless

Thanks to the overwhelming response to the request for suitcases for foster children from Liberty churches, Love INC has been able to supply all of foster children in Clay county and the children in the care of other agencies as well! It's truly heartwarming that the churches in Liberty came through for kids in need!

Love INC, has a shortage of hygiene items. When folks come to the food pantry, they are often living in their cars, as there is no homeless shelter north of the river. We will be organizing a drive during January to put together just those items.

We are continuing to collect candles and hand warmers for the people served by the Uplift Organization in Kansas City. Candles can be new or used--Uplift will melt them down and pour them into small can candles that can be used for light and heat.

PB&J

PB&J has openings in the following classes: Tuesday at 10 am and 6 pm, and Wednesday at 9 am and 5:30 pm. PB&J is for parents and their children (infants through pre-school age). Join us as we teach our Catholic faith through music, movement and instrument exploration. Contact Lori Tajchman for more information or to register.

Little Saints Snow Day:

Thursday, Jan. 22, 10 to 11:30 am, in the Social Hall Bring the kids in their favorite warm pajamas! We'll stay warm creating indoor snowball fights, building inside snowmen and watching a short movie. This month we stress the Corporal Work of Mercy "Shelter the Homeless". Please bring a candle or hand-warmers to donate to the homeless and the cold. Contact Lori Tajchman to RSVP.

"During the course of the day, recall as often as possible that you are in God's presence. Consider what God does and what you are doing. You will see His eyes turned toward you and constantly fixed on you with incomparable love. Then you will say to Him, "O God, why do I not look always at You, just as You always look at me? Why do You think so often of me, O Lord, and why do I think so seldom of You?" Where are we, O my soul? God is our true place, and where are we?" ~ St. Francis de Sales

Francis (1567-1622) was a patient man. Throughout his life he waited for God's will to be clear. He believed the way to holiness was through prayer. Although unusual for his era, he believed in promoting the holiness of lay people and wrote letters and books for their spiritual direction.

5 GREAT REASONS to Patronize the Merchants in Our Church Bulletin!

1. They support the work of our church.
2. It keeps money in our community. For every $100 spent at a locally owned business, $68 goes back into the community and your tax base. For every $100 spent at a chain store, only $43 comes back. Online purchases bring nothing back to our local community.
3. Keeps our community unique. Where we shop, where we eat and have fun—all of it makes our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.
4. Creates more good jobs. Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community.
5. Get better service. Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.
