Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

"Did you know"

Our gardening team; Gretchen Lathrop, Sandy Turner and Chuck Lewis, as well as Bob Lathrop and Al Turner who usually jumps in when the task is physically demanding, took on a new role when 200+ trees were planted in the fall. All of these trees must be watered when mother nature fails us. You can guess who is doing that watering. Their commitment to St James is something special.

Thank you

From the Pastor's Pen

And so, did he see his shadow? Yes, Groundhog Day 2015 and Punxsutawney Phil sees shadow and predicts six more weeks of winter. Oh yippie! Here we go!

Predicting the weather has become part science and part just luck. On the farm we had a "Donkey-meter" for predicting the weather. It was a donkey painted on a shingle. For a tail, it had a small piece of rope. Painted on the wood were the words, "Tail dry normal, tail moving windy, tail wet rain, tail gone, CYCLONE, kiss it good-bye..." Sometimes we would laugh and say that the donkey did a better job than the guy or gal on TV. On the farm, our livelihood depended upon the weather. A too dry year or a too wet year could make or break us. But one thing I remembered from the farm is that when the first of November rolled around, we prepared for winter. We would prepare for a long cold winter and wait to see what would happen. There were times when we played loaves and fishes with the livestock feed and hoped we could stretch it as long as needed.

It's still wintertime; we still have a few more weeks before spring. I'm sure there are many who are ready for spring, no more snow, and some warmer weather. And then we hear the call for more snow. Part of me is excited to hear that news, and part of me dreads it, for I love to sit and watch the snowfall. To wake up this past Sunday morning and see everything christened white, it was picture perfect and beautiful.

Lent is just around the corner. It is a time that will call us to once again reflect where we are in life. We know Lent. We know what to do to prepare. Will we get ready by giving up the same things again or making the same promises again? Will this year's Lent be a true change in our lives?

As I look ahead to the next few weeks, I will be traveling for various community and Vocation events. I look forward to my interactions with others and sharing our story of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood. It will be a time to engage others in retreats as we enter into the season of Lent. And trust me, I will be watching the weather app on my phone very close. Now, what kind of an app can I find to keep me on my Lenten path?

Fr. Timothy

YOU HIT IT OUT OF THE PARK ST. JAMES!

We asked you to step up to the plate and be a part of our team and you brought your "A" game! At our January blood drive, you pitched in to help local patients by donating 117 units of precious blood! Our starting lineup included 123 top-notch players who registered to save lives. Rounding out the team were awesome volunteers who helped us get game-day ready, provide support to the players, and tidy up the field when the game was over. To everyone involved, we tip our hats to you! We also want to thank Community Blood Center staff for their hard work, and the Kansas City Royals for providing two tickets to each donor for an April game. Please join us at our next home game on Tuesday, March 31st in the social hall and be sure to register for your appointment online at www.savealifenow.org. Encourage someone to join you and with your help, we are sure to hit another home run.

Facilitated by Deacon Chuck

When: Saturday's – 10:00am to 11:00am
(except 3rd Saturday's)

Where: St. James School Library

1 hour includes DVD with group discussion

We might be familiar with different aspects of the Catholic faith. But how does it all fit together? And what difference does it make for our lives?

Symbolon: The Catholic Faith Explained opens up the "big picture" of the Catholic faith in a way that helps us know it, live it and articulate it to others.

Through beautifully crafted teaching and state-of-the-art video, author, speaker and theologian Dr. Edward Sri leads a team of dynamic teachers who provide a clear and comprehensive explanation of the Catholic faith. Part I focuses on Knowing the Faith journeys through the core teachings of the Catholic Church and Part II, Living the Faith, focuses on our encounter with God in the sacraments and moral life.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

There have been a few times in my life where I felt so broken, and alone I wasn't sure I could ever feel Joy. I experienced the Love of God, through the tenderness of family and friends. I knew there was Hope, because I believed in Jesus. As time passed I also felt inner Peace, that helped me to see His Light in my life once again. I must confess, however, that Joy was in short supply. Even though I understood the concept of an inner joy which comes from my relationship with God, and I knew this was not the same as happiness, I was at a loss as to how to regain His Joy. I kept searching, and asking God to help me, but Joy remained outside my grasp. I realized how this loss was effecting my day to day living and relationships. When I looked in the mirror I saw great sadness and sorrow. It was an effort to get out of bed in the morning, and to find anything meaningful to occupy my thoughts and actions for the day. Then Fr. Mike asked me to revisit the possibility of beginning a Caring ministry. I must admit I thought I was the last person to facilitate such a group, but I said Yes. I begin researching, reading, and organizing, which is always how I face a new challenge. What was born was the Ministry for Healing-Sharing Our Losses: A Journey of Hope, Peace, Joy and Love.

I want to share this quote. It comes from a book, The Rosary, by Florence L. Barclay, published in 1910:

"Enable with perpetual light,
The dullness of our blinded sight:
Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of Thy grace.
Keep far our foes; give peace at home;
Where Thou art Guide, no ill can come."

As I read these word I was reminded of the petitions found in the Our Father: "Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil." As we allow Your light, Oh Lord, to enter our lives; if we allow You to lead us, fill us with inner peace, we will find the elusive Joy. It is my prayer, for any of you facing a life changing event, that the five weekly sessions of our Caring Ministry will help you surrender your pain to Jesus, and begin feeling His Hope, Peace, Love, and yes especially His Joy.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Thank You! Thank you!

The concert was wonderful!

Please allow me a moment to thank you all for your support of our concert -- The Music & Me -- last week in support of our professional development trip to the LA Religious Education

Congress in March. The concert raised enough that the expenses for the trip are almost completely covered. I know that I speak for Danny, Bobbi & Lori as well when I say that we were so touched by your show of support! We are very grateful for the opportunity offered to us, and we look forward to learning some exciting and new things to share when we get back.

February's Corporal Work of Mercy

Visit the Sick

Our Corporal Work for February is Visit the Sick. We will be making both Valentines and Get Well cards with our students. The Valentines will go to Our Lady of Mercy and area nursing homes, the Get Well cards will go with our Hospital Ministers as they make their rounds at the hospitals. Our parish will also be having a communal anointing of the Sick on the weekend of February 21/22 at all the weekend Masses. Anyone suffering from an illness of any kind is welcome to come up and receive the sacrament. (Some people have the erroneous belief that this sacrament is reserved for the dying --it is not.)

We will be talking with our students about how they can help care for those who are ill--our stories will be: Now One Foot, Now The Other, Get Well Soon, Grandpa, A Sick Day for Amos McGee and Somebody Loves You Mr. Hatch. These are all great stories that have to do with reaching out and caring for others and a great jumping off point to talk about empathy with your child. We also will show a short video called "Peach's Neet Feet" about a young woman who paints shoes for chronically ill children.

Our Lady
Lourdes

O ever immaculate Virgin, Mother of mercy, health of the sick, refuge of sinners, comfort of the afflicted, you know my wants, my troubles, my sufferings; deign to cast upon me a look of mercy. By appearing in the Grotto of Lourdes, you were pleased to make it a privileged sanctuary, whence you dispense your favors, and already many sufferers have obtained the cure of their infirmities, both spiritual and corporal. I come, therefore, with the most unbounded confidence, to implore your maternal intercession. Obtain, O loving Mother, the grant of my requests. I will endeavor to imitate your virtues, that I may one day share your glory, and bless you in eternity. Amen.

5 GREAT REASONS to Patronize the Merchants in Our Church Bulletin!

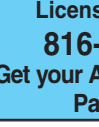

1. They support the work of our church.
2. It keeps money in our community. For every $100 spent at a locally owned business, $68 goes back into the community and your tax base. For every $100 spent at a chain store, only $43 comes back. Online purchases bring nothing back to our local community.
3. Keeps our community unique. Where we shop, where we eat and have fun—all of it makes our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.
4. Creates more good jobs. Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community.
5. Get better service. Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.
