Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

“We Appreciate”

St. James has entered into a contractual agreement with Brightergy (representing KCP&L) to upgrade all of our lights to LEDs YES ... church, school, social hall, and offices. As a non-profit, there will be no negative cash impact to St. James. Please stay tuned as we share specific benefits in future columns.

“Thanks” to everyone who participated in beautifying our building and grounds for the Easter celebrations – one more step in creating the welcoming environment we seek.

Thank You
Jim Newell, Operations Manager

From the Pastor's Pen

I was once asked by a parent, "Father, why aren't you teaching our children the traditions anymore?" And without hesitation I responded, "So what traditions do you want me to teach your child and why? And not 'Just because we've always done it.'" Later when I thought a bit more about it, what I should have said was, "Why aren't YOU teaching your child the traditions?"

Each of us has various family traditions and customs that we celebrate and share each year. They hold meaning for us when the traditions are lived out and shared with others. As we celebrated the Triduum and Easter, we celebrated many traditions and rituals. Beginning with Palm Sunday and the Procession with Palms to the reading of the Passion to Holy Thursday and the Washing of the Feet and the Remembrance of the Last Supper, and Jesus' words to us, "Do this in remembrance of me," to Good Friday and Venerating the Cross to Easter Vigil and the new fire and the new light, the readings of creation, the stories of our salvation, to Easter Sunday and the Resurrection. All these many days and events hold meaning and ritual and tradition for us. Some of it is understood through reading about it and making connections, other times it can only be understood when lived.

Each year as we celebrate Good Friday and the Veneration of the Cross, I cherish the time to stand and watch as each person comes forward. I remember year-to-year how different ones have approached. Some whose health has declined need the assistance of another. Some can no longer kneel down and easily get back up. For others, who were once scared and afraid to reach out and touch the cross without mom or dad's hand, now step forward on their own and embrace. Whatever this ritual means to us, we express it by doing it. Our faith isn't just learned from books, it is lived. Why do we do the things we do?

What does a single rose mean? It depends upon what day it is. One tradition on Mother's Day is that families wear a single white rose in memory of Mom and a single red rose in honor of Mom still living. No words are spoken, we just see and know.

What traditions do we treasure in our lives? What family traditions and customs do we pass on to our children? Do we do so just because that's what we've always done or do we ourselves truly understand what and why we do what we do?

Today we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. Do you know what it's all about and what it means to our faith? If not, join us and find out.

In the peace and joy of this Easter Season,
Fr. Timothy

IT LOOKS SPECTACULAR!!!

Thank you to all of the countless volunteers who showed up to help us decorate our church and school gym for Easter. Everything is just beautiful!

Holy Week & Easter

A big thank you to all of our Liturgical Ministers who shared their gifts of time and talent with us.

You made our Holy Week and Easter Masses especially wonderful!

Someone is Watching and Wondering

As many of you know the Easter Vigil always begins in darkness. The Pascal Candle is processed into the church, the individual candles of worshipers are lit from it, and the Easter Proclamation/Exsultet is sung by these flickering lights. It is quite unusual, in this modern age, to have only candle light for illumination, and yet it is quite appropriate as we hear these opening words: "Rejoice, heavenly powers! Sing, choirs of angels! Exult, all creation, around God's throne! Jesus Christ, Our King is risen! Sound the trumpet of salvation! Rejoice, O earth, in shining splendor, radiant in the brightness of your King! Christ has conquered! Glory fills you! Darkness vanishes for ever!" At that moment, in the semidarkness, with faces illuminated by single candles, there is a real sense that Yes, indeed, Jesus is the Light of the World. We followed His star at Christmas, journeyed through the dark, sometimes cold winter, prayed for forgiveness during Lent, and now we rejoice in the light of His resurrection.

When I reflect on my journey through life, I cannot miss those times of darkness, even despair, but always there is light. Perhaps dim at first, but eventually re-illuminating the present with joy and hope for the future. Perhaps the light comes with words or comfort, an embrace, a soft breeze, bright sunshine, or gentle rain. Sometimes the light is hidden in a book, painting, or music. Perhaps it bursts forth all around me in new life. I also find light flowing from God's words. For example Psalm 27 states: "The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom should I fear?"

Especially during this Easter Season I try to name my fears, and give them to Jesus, my light, my salvation. Over the years my fears have definitely changed. I no longer fear the future, or lack of security. I know God provides. What I fear the most is succumbing to loneliness. I have always been surrounded by people, at work, at home, at leisure. Now I find many times when it is only me. It feels empty, strange, and yes frightening. Then I remember Jesus' promise: "I am with you always!" and I don't feel so lost. I feel His love and comfort, and I Look to His Light,

Your Sister in Christ,

Sandy Gagnon

"Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."

Important News About Our Sister Parish In Peru

We spoke recently with Mark Giesige, the director of mission advancement for the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, Cincinnati Province. He regrets that regular communication between many of the sister parishes has been challenging in the last year. He assures that there is an effort underway to improve communication so that this important C.P.P.S. ministry can continue to unite Catholic communities in diverse parts of the world. He expressed gratitude for the many years that Saint James has worked with our sister parish, La Capilla de Preciosa Sangre, near Lima, Peru. He also announced a change in leadership at our sister parish that is expected to take place around Easter; a new pastor, Padre Hilton Rodriguez, C.P.P.S., will be at the helm. Mark asked that we at Saint James be patient as the new pastor gets to know his new congregation and their needs over the next few months.

Due to the great generosity of the people of St. James we are pleased to inform that we will send the new pastor $4,000 to assist in the needs of the sister parish. They are a growing parish, just like us; and this kind of support will be helpful.

Sincerely,
Susan and John Stolwyk

In Appreciation

The family of Brother Steve, would like to thank everyone at St James for many prayers, hugs, food for luncheon, choir for music, and for being a part of Steve's family. He always had something to say about one thing or another going on at the Church. He truly loved the times he was involved with the RCIA classes. Thank you again to everyone for all you have done for Steve and for us.

March 31 Blood Drive Results

On behalf of Community Blood Center, thank you so much for supporting our community at our recent blood drive. Mobile drives, such as ours, account for more than 70% of the blood needed to keep our hospitals adequately supplied. Each day, it is necessary to collect 580 units of blood to help our family, friends, and neighbors. That is why your contributions to each drive are so important. You truly are someone's hero each time you donate.

At our March drive, CBC staff registered 78 potential donors and collected 71 units of blood. Since each donation can help two patients, your donations have the potential of assisting up to 142 people.

From set-up to clean-up, many hands took part in making the day a success. Your sacrifice of time and dedication to this ministry is an inspiration to me and I am very grateful to you all for your help.

Please mark your calendars for our next drive on Tuesday, May 26. It's not too early to make your appointment now. Go to www.savealifenow.org and use sponsor code 'stjames' to find our drive and schedule a time convenient for you today.

Thank you again for your support!

Corporal Works of Mercy - April Visit The Imprisoned

Our corporal work of mercy for this month, and the last of the seven, is to Visit the Imprisoned. Our plan is for us to adopt a prisoner to pray for during this month. The prisoner can be someone who is physically in jail, but there are many kinds of prisons in life. Some people are prisoners of addiction, some are prisoners of grief, some are prisoners of anger and bitterness. We will be putting up a display where you can take a name and/or leave a name for us to pray for. First names only, and just a word or two describing the prison that they are in. We would ask that you take a name and, as a family, pray for that prisoner throughout the rest of the month. It would be a nice start to the month, and a great way to celebrate this Sunday, which is Divine Mercy Sunday.

How Can You Help?

Can you help? Three residents of the Cedars assisted-living home need a ride to church. If you can drive them to the 9:15 Mass once a month, on either the third or fourth Sunday, please call Loretta Kline at 816-377-4251. Cedars is located on Ruth Ewing Road near Hwy. 291.

Please notify us to remove your name from our prayer lists when it is time.

5 GREAT REASONS to Patronize the Merchants in Our Church Bulletin!

1. They support the work of our church.
2. It keeps money in our community. For every $100 spent at a locally owned business, $68 goes back into the community and your tax base. For every $100 spent at a chain store, only $43 comes back. Online purchases bring nothing back to our local community.
3. Keeps our community unique. Where we shop, where we eat and have fun—all of it makes our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.
4. Creates more good jobs. Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community.
5. Get better service. Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.
