Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

“We Appreciate”

St. James has entered into a contractual agreement with Brightergy (representing KCP&L) to upgrade all of our lights to LEDs YES ... “ALL”... church, school, social hall, and offices. As a non-profit, there will be no negative cash impact to St. James. Please stay tuned as we share specific benefits in future columns.

“Thanks” to everyone who participated in beautifying our building and grounds for the Easter celebrations – one more step in creating the welcoming environment we seek.

Thank You
Jim Newell, Operations Manager

From the Pastor's Pen

As we continue to celebrate the Easter season, and we reflect on the New Life that is promised by Jesus rising from the dead!

We have signs of new life in the Springtime of the year — with the blossoms of the trees, the green grass, the warmer temperatures — all calling us that winter is behind us and we grab onto the joy of Spring.

In our parish community, our young children and their families are coming to the Table of the Lord for the first time as they receive the Body and Blood of Christ in Holy Communion.

Our young adults are celebrating the sacrament of Confirmation this coming week, and we pray for the Guidance of the Holy Spirit upon them in this sacrament.

We also celebrate with those in our midst who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage — may they trust in the power of God bringing them together as husband and wife!

These are all signs of New Life.

We also pray in gratitude to those who are such good and faithful stewards of all God's gifts — sharing their time, talent and treasure — giving back to God for all that God has given them! This is a real example of New Life — trusting that God will provide, as God always has — and making sure our community is strong to care for all who come our way!

We are making plans for our new Church — hoping that all in our community will do their part to make our dream of a new church a reality. There will be more details forth coming — but let's all pray that our new church building will become a reality so that all who come our way might be cared for.

The Risen Lord Jesus is in our midst — may each of us take the opportunity to thank God for all the Good that has been accomplished thus far, and that each of us will be responsive to God's Call in our own lives!

May you and your families continue to know God's Peace and Hope this Easter season!!

Peace, Fr. Mike

Someone is Watching and Wondering

*"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you;
not as the world gives do I give to you.
Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."*

(John 14:27)

How often do you hear the words "Peace be with you?" I am relatively certain that in your mind you immediately thought, "And with your spirit." For Catholics, regardless of how often we attend Mass, this dialogue is all too familiar. Have you ever stopped to consider the origin of these words, or what they mean to use as followers of Jesus Christ?

When Jesus appeared to His disciples, following the resurrection, He did not rebuke them for fleeing from Him or hiding in fear. He didn't bring up any of the painful, embarrassing events of the past few days, He never even acknowledged Peter's denial. Instead He came to them with a heart full of love, and wished them peace. We hear so many familiar stories of Jesus' unconditional love. Think of the Samaritan women, the criminal crucified with Jesus, the women accused of adultery, the man possessed with demons, the tax collector. Jesus doesn't reject them, but rather offered compassion, healing, and hope. I think that is precisely what He offers to us. No matter how often we sin, or how grievous our offenses, God is ready to forgive us and release us from guilt. He wants us to be reconciled with Him. As long as we don't reject Him, cast Him from our lives, His peace, that passes all understanding, remains. We shouldn't be confused though, His peace is not the same as the peace of this world (John 14:27). Worldly peace depends on favorable circumstances such as getting our way, things going as we expect, and all our problems being easily managed. Instead, Jesus' peace brings a quiet confidence in our hearts; guidance for challenging situations. It is a peace that is totally dependent on the never ending love of God. His peace allows us to say "I belong to Jesus the Lord, and I know he will never abandon me!" As His followers, Jesus' gift of peace should spill over into our relationships with each other. Jesus said, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (John 20:21) His peace and love empowers us to go forth to love and serve one another with the same mercy and love He has shown us.

May you always know His Peace!

Your Sister in Christ,

Sandy Gagnon

The Sacrament of Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation enriches the baptized with the strength of the Holy Spirit so that they can better witness to Christ in word and deed. Through Confirmation, Christians strengthen their bond with the Church and become better equipped to carry out the Church's mission of love and service.

Many people think of the laying on of hands, which signifies the descent of the Holy Spirit, as the central act in the Sacrament of Confirmation. The essential element, however, is the anointing of the confirmand (the person being confirmed) with chrism (an aromatic oil that has been consecrated by the bishop, accompanied by the words "Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit" . This seal is a consecration, representing the safeguarding by the Holy Spirit of the graces conferred on the Christian at Baptism.

Corporal Works of Mercy - April Visit The Imprisoned

Our corporal work of mercy for this month, and the last of the seven, is to Visit the Imprisoned. Our plan is for us to adopt a prisoner to pray for during this month. The prisoner can be someone who is physically in jail, but there are many kinds of prisons in life. Some people are prisoners of addiction, some are prisoners of grief, some are prisoners of anger and bitterness. We will be putting up a display where you can take a name and/or leave a name for us to pray for. First names only, and just a word or two describing the prison that they are in. We would ask that you take a name and, as a family, pray for that prisoner throughout the rest of the month.

GREAT REASONS to Patronize the Merchants in Our Church Bulletin!

1. They support the work of our church.
2. It keeps money in our community. For every $100 spent at a locally owned business, $68 goes back into the community and your tax base. For every $100 spent at a chain store, only $43 comes back. Online purchases bring nothing back to our local community.
3. Keeps our community unique. Where we shop, where we eat and have fun—all of it makes our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.
4. Creates more good jobs. Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community.
5. Get better service. Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.
