A Correction To A Previous Article

In a previous article I discussed the plan for moving and relocating the large evergreens to allow grading of the boundary between St. James and Liberty Commons.

A recent reassessment of this project has determined that the relocation effort must be put on hold due to the massive numbers of utilities located between our properties.

We are exploring some other options and will keep you apprised of the outcome.

Thank You
Jim Newell, Operations Manager

From the Pastor's Pen

I don't need a newspaper article to tell me that the pollen count is sky high. I know it and my nose knows it! I jokingly told someone a couple weeks ago we need one more good snow. I was hoping for a couple snow days to stay home, but now I'm hoping for some relief from what might be a long allergy season.

As I am writing this, I just got a text message from a friend of mine who is campus minister of a Catholic high school. She texted to ask for prayers for a Senior who was arrested last night for DWI, no license, assaulted the officer, and now has zero support from his family. I don't know anymore about the situation other than that. If we were to start casting stones today, who would be the first to cast a stone? The other question is who would be the target? I also just discovered that "he" is a "she" who has been living in her Grandma's old truck and this isn't the first time she's been in trouble.

How quick are we to cast that first stone? How quick are we to point a finger of blame without knowing all the facts? Is the one in trouble, the one that got caught, the only one to blame or do we point the finger of blame at others? My issue of dealing with allergies is really no one's fault. It is what it is, I have had to learn to deal with it. On the other hand, the choices and life-situations we find ourselves in do make a difference. In this Year of Mercy, can we dare to show mercy to others or is our hand wrapped so tight around that stone we can't let go? Is our finger of blame too quick to point?

We pray today for those who are struggling with life, for those who have made choices and for those who find themselves in bad situations. May we find the courage within to lend support instead of just casting stones.

I also ask for your prayers this weekend as I travel to St. Charles, Carthegena, OH, for our C.P.P.S. Discernment Weekend. We will be hosting four men who are interested in joining our community and religious life. Two of them are making applications and two are attending for the first time to find out more. May the Holy Spirit awaken within them the desire to serve. As we draw closer to Holy Week and Easter, may we meet often in prayer.

In the Peace of His Mercy,
Fr. Timothy

Someone is Watching and Wondering

This week, as the Elect celebrate the Third Scrutiny, we join with them in looking at Sins of Hopelessness; what I call cold, dark, crippling, despair. During the previous two weeks we named our personal and communal/cultural sins. These are fairly straightforward and easy to understand. Today's focus, however, forces us to dig deeper, exposing areas of our life which are most painful. Perhaps we have tried to block them from memory, only to discover they re-emerge over and over and over again. Let me suggest a few such events: unexpected, sudden death of a loved one, unrelenting pain, diagnosis of terminal illness, hate-filled violence in our world, physical and emotional harm to innocent children, devastating natural disasters, etc. I'm sure you realize how each of these situations seem entirely out of our control. We have done nothing to cause them, nor can we prevent them. The age old question: "Why do so many bad things happen?" Let me be clear, however, the events are not the sin we are naming here, rather the sin is in our reactions to such events which leave us paralyzed, feeling alone and hopeless. We doubt, we fear, and we question our relationships, even our relationship with God. Our ability to love, trust, and feel His presence seems to wither. Our minds scream, "Why is God letting this happen? What have I done to deserve this?"

Please forgive me, I do not want to minimize anyone's pain and suffering. I too have walked down this road on more than one occasion. There are many times I still wonder where God is trying to lead me, but by His grace I still feel the warmth of His love and welcome the light of each new day as pure gift. When I open my eyes to all the beauty of the natural world, I know God's presence. I may not understand my role, where I'm journeying next, or how I'm suppose to get from here to there. I know I am my own worst enemy. No one can cause as much harm to me as I cause to myself, and the greatest evil seeps into my existence when I turn from God, when my disillusion and despair is so great I stop believing and trusting in His love and forgiveness. His arms are open, don't despair, run to Him.

Your sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

H.O.P.E. / SCRIP GIFT CARD NEWS

It's ALMOST SPRING

In just a few days it will be March 20 and Spring will officially make its debut. Hopefully this means that snow and cold weather won't be making a return performance as daffodils and other Spring flowers begin peeking their heads above the ground.

And this also means that it's time to think about gardens, sports, home repairs, and other springtime activities.

For your gardening needs, get a Lowe's, Home Depot, Walmart or Sutherland's gift card to buy everything you need. Whether you're looking for plants or shrubs, garden tools, fertilizer, potting soil, or seeds – they have it all.

This is also a good time to refurbish your fishing equipment or buy more. It's easy with a Rogers Sporting Goods gift card. We also have Dick's Sporting Goods cards available for most of your other Spring sporting goods needs.

If you're sprucing up your home - repairing or remodeling, inside or out - you'll find everything you need at Home Depot, Lowes, or Walmart. We've got all these cards – and keep them in stock for your convenience.

And, don't forget to buy those grocery and restaurant cards for your continued support of the "Ya Gotta Eat" challenge.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

*"It is not creativity, however pastoral it may be,
or meetings or planning that ensures our fruitfulness,
even if these are greatly helpful.*

*But what ensures our fruitfulness is our being faithful to Jesus,
who says insistently:*

"Abide in me and I in you" (John 15:4)."

A Big Thank You From St. James 4th Graders

Remember the Shoe Drive sponsored by our St. James 4th graders in mid-January?

Thanks to your generosity, they collected 187 pairs of shoes for Kicks 4 KansasCity.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY IS APRIL 3

Divine Mercy Sunday is the Sunday following Easter. Our Lord asked Saint Faustina to pray and work towards establishing a Feast of Divine Mercy on that day.

When Pope John Paul II canonized Sister Faustina (making her Saint Faustina), he also, on the same day, surprised the entire world by establishing Divine Mercy Sunday as a feast day for the entire Church.

He set aside this day as a day of forgiveness of sin and punishment due to sin (with sacramental confession 20 days before or after and receiving Holy Communion).

He even prayed the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the prayer that Jesus gave her, at the saint's tomb. Given all these connections between St. Faustina and Divine Mercy, is it any wonder that Pope John Paul II died on the Vigil of Divine Mercy Sunday (the evening before the feast day), which fell that year on April 3, 2005 and was canonized St. John Paul II on the Feast of Divine Mercy, 2014.

Our Divine Mercy celebration at St. James will be April 3, with Eucharistic Adoration from 2-4 p.m., including opportunities for Confession, private devotion, praying and singing of the Divine Mercy Chaplet and Benediction.

See the insert in this week's bulletin for more information about St. Faustina and the Message of Mercy.
