Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Did You Know?

Spring is here!

All of a sudden the rain has brought a lush environment to St. James. The islands are newly mulched and the garden team and their helpers have the church and prayer garden in beautiful shape.

We await the completion of grading on the boundary between St. James and Liberty Commons.

An 1,168' long aluminum fence will be erected between our properties to be accompanied by very attractive landscaping.

"All good for St. James!"

Thank You

Jim Newell, Operations Manager

From the Pastor's Pen

Earlier this week I had the opportunity to travel to Chicago along with an inquirer, Christopher Hoffman, and visit our guys in the Formation House. Although we left before sunrise, it was a beautiful drive across Missouri into Illinois. For once there was very little slow down due to road construction. As we turned and merged onto the last highway before exiting into the city, I looked across the median only to see a parking lot. I was so counting my blessing we were going this direction and not the other. And then, just as luck would have it, brake lights appeared before me and we slowed to a grinding halt just as I moved right and exited. Just in the right place at the right time.

Today we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. It celebrates one of our most ancient beliefs. But we don't celebrate a dogma or official church teaching today. Instead, we celebrate and reflect on our relationship with God and what our Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier has done for us. The scriptures remind us of our God's graciousness and we rejoice in the God who has acted so mightily and lovingly on our behalf.

In a God class, my professor pulled different resources in attempts to help explain what we mean by the Trinity. We explored different ideas and theologies from over the years. The one image that still sticks in my mind is the circle of three. Three people join hands together and spin around in a circle. The idea is that the three spin so fast that they appear to be one. In our mind this idea can take shape, but in reality it may not be so neat. I've attempted this a couple of times with both adults and children. As you can imagine, it was quite the spectacle. It did demonstrate the thought but it was disaster when I tried to slow the circle and have the three return to their seats. No one could navigate safely back to their pew. All three, young and old, were a bit dizzy and dazed. No matter how we try to explain or symbolize the Trinity, it is a mystery that can never be fully explained. It just has to be lived and experienced. No words can truly define a relationship, but we each know a good relationship or a bad one through our own experiences.

I have a plaque on my wall that says, "Dance like no one is watching, sing like no one is listening, and live each day like it is your last." A special friend gave it to me and not only do I cherish the gift, but also our friendship. Let us today dance, sing and live for the one who created us, is with us, watches all we do and loves us unconditionally.

May God the Father who made us bless us. May God the Son send his healing among us. May God the Holy Spirit move within us.

—Prayer of St. Dominic

Peace,

Fr. Timothy

Someone is Watching and Wondering

There are many, many pictures and symbols which depict the Holy Trinity. I recently found this one on the LOKAALOKAYA (Light of the World) web site. I was instantly drawn to it because it seems to express tenderness, love and a never-ending interconnectedness between the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. When I think about the Trinity these are terms which come to mind. God the Father created all that exists, not to manipulate and control, but rather for His creation to continue to evolve into the fullness and diversity of the universe. He brought everything into being as an act of unconditional love. For me, I came to this understanding through experiencing the natural world in all its mystery and beauty, and in learning about Jesus. His life, death, and resurrection were examples to each of us of the full extent of God's love. According to St. Paul, "we have gained access by faith to (God's) grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the Glory of God" through the Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. I understand this to mean that without experiencing and embracing Jesus' love, we remain in a state of unrest and hopelessness. Yet even in this endeavor, we are not alone, because "the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit." (Romans 5:1-5) In simplistic terms, I am nothing and can do nothing outside the love of God.

Without sounding presumptuous, I feel as though God wraps me in His love. I, and in fact all His creation, stand in the center of the representative symbols above. I may turn away from God, but He will never reject me. God will not withhold His love, and Jesus will continue to take away my sins. I must freely ask the Holy Spirit to lead me, Jesus to embrace my pain, and my Father to forgive my doubts and remove my fears, so that in loving trust I may surrender to His care. As Mary said, "Let it be done unto me." There may be times when I ask God to take away my pain and suffering, but in the end I must follow Jesus, and confess not my will but your Father.

Your sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Celebrate Memorial Day Next Weekend

Originally established as a day to honor all Americans who died in all wars, over the years Memorial Day was extended to honor and remember all family members.

Today Memorial Day and the weekend preceding it is not only a day of remembrance, but also a day for family get togethers, family reunions, potluck dinners and backyard cookouts.

So, before doing your grocery shopping this week, be sure to buy gift cards for purchasing all your food and decorating needs. You'll find everything you need at Hy-Vee, Price Chopper, Target, or WalMart. These cards are in stock, so stop by the HOPE table after Mass, or buy them in the parish office this week during regular office hours.

Our "Ya Gotta Eat" campaign is still going on and Memorial Day weekend is the perfect time to buy and use HOPE cards to purchase 25% of your weekly food needs.

Remember, buying HOPE cards costs you no more than you would otherwise spend on whatever you plan to buy, and your purchase helps support St. James.

Trinity Sunday

This weekend, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, gives us a chance to reflect on ways to LIVE OUT THE TRINITY.

Unity, Community, and Equality

Unity: They are three distinct persons yet they are one in essence. We are distinct individuals from various backgrounds, levels, ideas and dispositions. However we are united in one Christian community. Our diversity should be at the service of a functional unity because as Paul would say in Christ our diversities give way to unity.

Community: There is no time the Father works without the Son and the Holy Spirit. That is why you will hear the Father saying twice "Let us". Our Lord Jesus would also attest that he does whatever he sees the Father doing. We should learn to work together as members of the same community. No one is an Island. We need each other for growth and development.

Equality: In the Godhead there is absolute equality given the fact that they have one essence. Within our human experience we all share in one humanity but often we notice that we keep creating unjustifiable barriers of inequality between the "haves" and the "have nots". Often some people see others as less human than they are. From the Trinity we learn to see ourselves as equals sharing the common gift of life given to us by God.

Happy Happy Joy Joy Super Mega Parish family Summer Fun

Here's what's new....

We are getting things put together for our summer fun days, and we are beginning what I like to call the Scrounging Phase.

In addition to the items for which we are looking for donations, here is a list of items we would like to borrow. Please contact Cecilia if you can help.

We need to borrow 4-5 outdoor fire pits, as well as the firewood (well, we would be using the firewood, so that's more of a donation...but we would give the fire pits back!)

We need some long fire skewers--for roasting marshmallows. They would need to be the extra-long kind--at least 3 ft.

If you have one, we need to borrow a regular sized volleyball net.

That's the list for this week -- there will be other things as we go along!

PB&J

(Prayer, Bible Study, & Jammin')

Join our summer session of PB&J.

For just $25, you and your little ones (birth through pre-k) will enjoy 4 musical classes of singing, dancing and instrument exploration - and hear Jesus' story of the lost sheep and lost coin.

Classes are offered Tuesday and Wednesday mornings and Wednesday evenings (June 7-29). Registration forms are on the table in the Narthex and online. Direct questions to Lori Tajchman.
