Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Did You Know?

The turnout for the St. James Parish celebration was astounding! We estimated in excess of 500 people of all ages attended; everyone appeared to have had a great time.

The celebration opened with the release of the balloon rosary (see cover picture).

Fr. Mike recognized both sets of Capital Campaign Chairs. Our first campaign (Forward in Faith) was represented by Kevin and Sue Nordhues and Midge Weir. (We had the word that Ed was watching closely.) He thanked the rest of that team, Blake and Mary Margaret Parrish, Bob and Bridgett Bagby and Jim and Suzie Olson for getting the rock rolling. He then segued to our current campaign chairs, Steve Gregoire, Angie Reed, Christine Bohr, Clint Elliott, and Todd Carmichael who were applauded for driving the current campaign to record numbers – $5.8M in pledges and $2M in cash. He closed his remarks by saying that there is an upcoming opportunity to get approval for the next phase from the Bishop in the near future.

The campaign Events Team, lead by Debbie Taylor, were on Father's "thanks" list for tying the day's events together and making the event one that we will surely repeat.

Fathers' Mike and Timothy led the parish to the new 16mm LED sign where Fr. Mike blessed it. The picture on the cover captured a segment of the attendees.

With our parking lot and our new sign to offer welcoming, St. James is becoming a highlight in the geography of Liberty. Imagine the footprint when the new church fills the space at the end of the palisade!

The Precious Blood Community were thanked for their long support of St. James as well as a generous commitment to the current campaign.

Thank You
Jim Newell, Operations Manager

From the Pastor's Pen

What a great celebration Parish Celebration last weekend - a special thanks to all who gave of their time, talent and treasure so beautifully to bring our parish together, and celebrate all that has been accomplished, with a lot of dedication and the Grace of God among us!

And our big news: we have a meeting with the Diocesan Finance Committee in a few weeks, which will hopefully give us the 'go ahead' to take the next steps of meeting with the Architect and putting a final design on the church, that will move into the dream of a new church over the next couple of years.

This is possible because of the guidance of our Chairpersons of our First Campaign three years ago and our most recent one. With the completion of our parking lot, our new exterior 'St. James Sign' – we are moving along. If you have not had the chance to make a 3-year pledge to our campaign, you still have the chance to do so.

Wouldn't it be great if within a couple years we had a new church, and then moved on to renovating our current facilities, and we wouldn't have much debt. That can happen if we ALL do our part! Let's continue to work together.

The big "Estate Sale & Garage Sale" happened this Saturday. We are most grateful to Dick and Mary Loy Brown for their generosity of donating all the proceeds from this sale to the New Church Fund, and to Ann Tucker for her 'tireless efforts' in helping carry this event off!

We hope to see you at the big Parish Family Fun Night, which Cecilia shared with us this past weekend at all the Masses. It's happening this coming Monday, June 13, from 6 - 8:30 pm. All are invited – come and join us for a huge pot luck and lots of games and fun for all ages.

Please come and join us on Tuesday, June 21, when we host the Diocesan Evangelization Committee and discuss the Adult Faith Formation opportunities here at St. James – special thanks to Troy and Chelsea Grizzle for putting this together. See details in the bulletin.

Lastly, all are welcome to come and join us for a "Service of Lament" at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, on Sunday, June 26 at 2pm – we are gathering as a diocesan church to pray for forgiveness and acknowledge the hurt and pain caused by the sexual abuse scandal. A reception will follow. It's a great time in this "Year of Mercy" for all of us to gather to pray for victims and their families, and the gift of healing for our Diocese and Church.

Blessings this summertime to you and your family.

Peace, Fr. Mike

Children's Summer Choir Cancelled

Due to low enrollment, Children's Summer Choir has been cancelled.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

One of the questions I propose in "Faith Formation" is "What image comes to mind, or what words would you use to describe God?" It is a question often met with blank stares, followed by words such as creator, omnipotent, judge, presence, and father. When Moses encountered God in a burning bush, he covered his face, and asked "Who are you?" God's simply reply, "I am who I am" (Ex3:14). This still doesn't answer my question: "What is your image of God." I don't intent a rapid, theologically correct answer, nor a quotation from scripture. Rather, there are to real questions: "What image of God do you hold in your mind and heart; and how do you reveal God to others?"

Do you think of God as fearful, a rule giver, vengeful, a stern, unapproachable man with a long white beard? Does the Holy Trinity come to mind, with images for Father, Son, and Spirit? Do these images meld into one being, or are they always separate? Does an image of Jesus come to mind whenever you think or pray to God? Does God ever have a female voice?

Perhaps answering the second question will help. I believe the way we reveal God to others is through unconditional love and service. It is how we treat others, like the old axiom, "Deeds speak louder than words." With this answer, I think the best description of God is simply "I am love." Not I show love, or I give love, just "God is Love,"

Have a Blessed Week, Your sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Summer 850 Prayer Challenge

Calling all 6th-12th grade teens.....

There are 85 days of summer break and all you need to do is set aside 10 minutes per day for prayer. At the end of the summer you will have (at least) 850 minutes of prayer. So we can keep a total for the entire youth group minutes. Log minutes weekly HERE each Saturday beginning May 28th.

<http://tinyurl.com/850prayer>

His love and invitation to come to Him, with our sins, our hurt, and with all the baggage we carry is so strong that she risks bursting into Simon's dinner party just to get to Jesus. It takes a lot of courage to move towards Jesus, but once she steps in, His deep and abiding love soothes all.

Jesus does not question her motives. He does not point out shortcomings or sins. There is no need for words in the exchange. They both already know why she is there and what she brings. It is without words, she lays her burdens down at His feet. In return, He puts His hand on her soul, letting her know....

"It is okay my child, none of that matters. You have been made whole again. Not because I love you, I loved you yesterday. You have been made whole again because, today, you know I love you."

St. James School News

4th Grade at SJS!

The yearlong theme for St. James' fourth grade is "Explore Missouri." While all our students are very blessed with many opportunities, one of our yearly highlights is our study trip to Jefferson City. The fourth graders study the three branches of state government and Missouri's history. They also love to explore their own role as a responsible citizen in a democracy. St. James fourth graders were able to travel to Jefferson City on a chartered bus May 5. The classes met our state representative, Nick King, and state senator, Ryan Silvey, at the Capitol. We continued our morning with a guided tour of the Capitol building.

One highlight of the trip was visiting the House Lounge. A Thomas Hart Benton mural depicting Missouri history covers the walls of the lounge. It was a great addition to the day as the fourth graders had studied both the history of Missouri and the artwork of a famous Missourian, Thomas Hart Benton. Senator Silvey treated us to a pizza lunch for the students and chaperones. After lunch the students were able to experience "going home with the Governor" as we toured the Governor's mansion and surrounding artwork and history outside. We were lucky enough to be able to extend our trip beyond the constraints of a regular school day, so we had many hours to feel the government of our state. The trip was about a 14 hour day for us! The fourth graders had a fun and educational trip to Jefferson City, and we are all so grateful for the chance they had to experience this memorable day.

Birthdays this week: Today we celebrate all that you with God's help, have accomplished.
