Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Did You Know?

Mike Kromeich and his folks at Northstar get a special thanks for their commitment to follow-up replacing the trees that were planted when the parking lot was completed that were lost over the winter.

Mike will be working with our gardening team, led by Gretchen Lathrop and Sandy Turner, to layout and install a terraced garden area around the new sign. They will be planting trees and shrubs that require minimum maintenance.

All of these efforts contribute to our capability to enhance the beauty of our facility and welcome all.

Thank You

From the Pastor's Pen

Thanks to all who attended the Diocesan meeting regarding a plan for Adult Faith Formation for our parish community this past week. And, a special thanks to Tony and Chelsea Grizzel, who coordinated, and Deacon Chuck who represented the parish staff

This Sunday afternoon at 2pm our Diocese is hosting a 'Service of Lament' at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, with a Reception to follow. This is a prayer service supporting one another in healing broken hearts, burdens of pain and promises of Grace.

We all know the impact that Sexual Abuse of Minors has had on the Catholic Church in general, as well as our own Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. Bishop Johnston is gathering all representatives of the diocese together to acknowledge this pain and hurt and to pray for the gift of healing and forgiveness for all whose lives have been impacted in some way from the scandal of sexual abuse.

I have personally been involved in the planning of this service and we want to make sure this is an opportunity to come together to ask forgiveness on behalf of the Church, and to acknowledge the pain and sorrow this scandal has had on so many within our own community. I firmly believe this will be a 'step' toward acknowledgment and hopefully healing within our Church.

The problem with sexual abuse of minors is that it often times remains 'hidden' and no one acknowledges it. So, if you know anyone who has been hurt or wounded by the Catholic Church at all, this would be a service that would be good for them. There will also be representatives of the Church, and trained counselors for those wishing to talk or needing guidance.

I hope you and your families are enjoying this summertime, and keeping cool in the midst of the heat.

A couple last points – a very special THANK YOU to all who are so faithful to your giving; especially to your pledges. As you can see from our Financial reports from Katie Klassen's office, we are improving our financial picture so far this year. So, it's very exciting that we are meeting with the Diocesan Finance Committee and will hopefully be able to move forward to confirming our design of the new church, and make that goal a reality.

If you have the opportunity to give toward your 2016 planned giving before June 30 of this year, which is the end of our Fiscal year, it would be greatly appreciated! Know that it takes ALL of us doing our part to make sure that we provide a great parish & school environment in which to nurture our families!

Peace to you and your families.
Fr. Mike

A from the Liturgy/Music Office

SERVICE OF PEACE AND PRAYER FOR AN END TO VIOLENCE

In the wake of the horrific Orlando tragedy, Danny Baker, our Director of Liturgy and Music Ministry, approached Fr. Mike with an idea - let's hold a prayer service for peace and an end to violence.

The wheels were quickly set in motion, Danny prepared the service, as many parishioners as possible were contacted, and on Wednesday, June 15, Fr. Mike presided over a Service of Peace and Prayer for an End to Violence.

The opening song was "God Weeps With Us Who Weep and Mourn", which so beautifully expressed the sentiment that was felt as we tried to get our minds around the hows and whys this tragedy occurred.

Fr. Mike asked that we take the time to ask the God of peace to bring peace to this earth and asked for prayers that peace would begin right here, within this holy place. He referred to the church as a sacred place where we come because we need to be here to gather as a people of hope. He went on to say, "no one understands this kind of violence, we have no answers - there are none". He asked that we place ourselves in God's hands, to focus on the power of His love and that no matter what happens, we must trust in the words of Jesus, "I am with you always, until the end of age." (Matt 28:20)

Throughout the service, a bowl of burning incense sat on a small table near the bottom of the Easter candle. As Father lifted the bowl and incensed the candle and the people, the wafting smoke, purifying all that it touched, was a visual reminder that our prayers were rising to heaven.

The service closed with the singing of "We Shall Overcome". And we, God's people, shall.

Lectors Needed

We need lectors for our 6:00pm Sunday Masses. Generally lectors read approximately once a month. To volunteer or for more information, contact Dick Brown at 781-1766.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

This Wednesday (June 29th) we the Church celebrate the Solemnity of St. Peter the Apostle and St. Paul the teacher of the Gentiles. There is much written about Peter in the Gospels, but Paul isn't mentioned until the Acts of the Apostles. It seems, however, that we come to know him primarily through his letters to the churches he help establish. When I was initially introduced his letters I had difficulty reading or relating to them. The one exception was 1 Corinthians 13, which I found inspirational and up-lifting. Since becoming a Catholic, however, I have discovered a sense of encouragement and hope in his writing.

I recently re-read the second chapter of the letter to the Philippians, and was particularly struck with the following: "Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interest of others. Let the same mind be in that that was in Christ Jesus." (3-5) These words are directly to the central message of the Gospels, and reflect the current teachings of Pope Francis. In other words, living the Christian life isn't all about me and God, it is about lovingly caring about and for others. Church is not a singular noun; it is a plural noun. We are not isolated, holy islands in a sea a non-believers, sinners or "the others." We are united through our humanity with God's creation, and called to serve others, as servants, by our Lord, Jesus Christ. Take some time to read this letter, and reflect on its impact in your life before June 29th.

Your sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Thought for the Week : Our Call

Did you hear about the guy at the party who was asked, "What do you do?" and he replied, "When?"

The question "What do you do?" is not an easy question to answer. Each of us could respond to that question in a number of ways: A guy might say, "I sell computer software, I love my wife, I play golf with my friends, I go to church, I vote, I whistle while I do chores around the house, I shovel the snow for my invalid neighbor, and I make life delightful with my culinary abilities and my sense of humor."

Our lives are rich blends of many different traits and talents and roles and responsibilities. Yet underneath all our multiple tasks, life is sweetest when we know not only WHAT we do but also WHY we do it, and WHO we do it for. It's like the two laborers who were asked what they were up to. One replied, "I'm lugging stone from here to there." The other beamed, "I'm building a Cathedral to honor my God."

The truth is, our entire life is our work. And if we live it to the full in faithfulness and integrity, we will have found and followed our true calling.

Whether I am starting a new business, tending my children, or searching the want ads, I have the opportunity to somehow do it for God. I can offer my life and my work as a contribution to the common good. When I see my work as being done for God, everything I do becomes charged with meaning and purpose and beauty. Even when I'm home scouring the tub.
