Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Do You Know?

We are moving ahead with the 40' by 50' garden that will surround the Electronic Message Sign in the front of our property.

The garden will be edged with versa-lok "mosaic" paving stones. The stones are similar in appearance to the retaining wall on the commercial road. It will be covered in decorated gravel and contain blue spruce trees, Junipers and annuals. All fall into the category of low maintenance plantings.

Thanks to our garden teams and landscape architect Theresa Brosman who provided the planning and layout "pro bono".

We continue in our efforts to create a welcoming environment in preparation for our new church.

Thank You,
 Jim Newell, Operations Manager

Day of Remembrance

November 20

We invite you to join us for a prayer service beginning at 12:30pm followed by a luncheon served in the social hall.

Although it is not required, we would appreciate an RSVP to help us know how many to expect for lunch.

Please call or email the parish office by Wednesday November 16 at 781-4343 or daryl.sweetland@stjames-liberty.org.

From the Pastor's Pen

As we journey through November, we remember our beloved dead and all those gone before us. We know many folks and families are mourning the loss of loved ones. On Sunday, Nov. 20 at 12:30pm we will have a Prayer Service to remember all those who have died this past year. All are invited and to the luncheon following. This is a wonderful opportunity to gather, support those who are grieving, and deepen our faith in the promise of the Resurrection.

We have the opportunity over the next couple weekends, to return our pledge cards for the Million $$$$ Opportunity. Thanks to all who are such good stewards, making this 'once in a lifetime opportunity' a success. It will certainly enhance all that we can do as a parish community – to hasten our building project as well as strengthen all our ministries.

We are pleased to announce that we have hired a new Director of Youth Ministry. Denise Whelan, who is currently a Youth Minister in Palmyra, MO, will be joining us the second week of January. She brings an excitement and gift for ministering to young people and their families. Be sure to read the article about Denise on page 7. A special thanks to all our volunteers and catechists who have ministered to our youth over these last few months – they have built a great spirit and energy in which to welcome a new Director of Youth Ministry, enabling us to continue the good work that God has begun among us.

Next weekend we have a special collection at Masses for 'Tomorrow's Priests' – a diocesan collection that goes to support the education and formation for young men studying for the priesthood. We welcome one of our diocesan seminarians, Aaron Hooper, to St. James. He will be speaking briefly at the Masses sharing his experience of seminary, and asking for our support for the education and formation of future priests.

On Tuesday, November 22 at 7:00pm we are hosting the Interfaith Thanksgiving service sponsored by the Liberty Ministerial Alliance. The beautiful prayer service around the theme of Gratitude/ Thanksgiving will be followed by a reception in the Social Hall. All are welcome to this great opportunity to gather with all our brothers and sisters of different denominations to give praise and thanks to God at this Thanksgiving time of year.

Lastly, as we kickoff our annual Advent Giving Tree, a special thanks to all our volunteers who have been working so hard to see that families in need are cared for during the holidays!!

May you and your families continue to know God's guidance and generosity at this Thanksgiving time of the year.

Peace,
Fr. Mike

Annual Ecumenical
Thanksgiving Service
Tuesday, November 22

On Tuesday, November 22nd, beginning at 7:00pm the entire community of Liberty will come together and celebrate all our many blessings at the annual Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service. (Sponsored by the Liberty Ministerial Alliance.) St. James is proud to promote unity among our fellow Christian churches by hosting this year's service.

We will have scripture and prayer from other church leaders here in Liberty. Local church choirs will come together and form a choir of over 80 voices lifting their voices in praise and thanksgiving for all of God's many blessings accompanied by organ, piano and brass.

We hope that you and your family will make plans to join us this year. There will be a reception to follow in the Social Hall hosted by our Altar Society.

Children's Choir

As Fall sports near their end and Saturday morning schedules open up, consider sharing the gift of choir with your children. We have begun practicing music for the seasons of Advent and Christmas. We will be busily preparing to sing at Lessons & Carols and on Christmas Eve. In the meantime, we will continue to sing at the regularly scheduled 11am Masses. Contact Lori Tajchman if you have a Kindergarten through 5th Grade student who would like to sing, or if you have a Middle School Student who would like to sing as a youth helper!

Children's Choir Schedule:

11/19 - No Practice (KCYC)
11/20 - NOT singing at Mass (KCYC)
11/26 - No Practice (Thanksgiving)

Someone is Watching and Wondering

This has been a stressful year, filled with challenges for many people. During this Month of Remembrance, I would like to share this responsorial prayer which in the past has brought comfort and healing to me.

When we come face to face with the challenge of self-giving, when we are asked to go the extra mile, to take the risk of reaching out to another, to offer forgiveness to the heart that rejects us. . .

Response: Spirit of God, fill us with the energy of Your Love.

When our world seems bleak, when we walk with sadness written on our soul, when we have days in which everything goes wrong. . .

Response: Spirit of God, stir the energy of Your joy within us.

When anxiety and concern take over our spirit, when restlessness or boredom holds sway over us, when our world cries out in distress and turmoil. . .

Response: Spirit of God, deepen in us the energy of Your peace.

On those days when we hurry too much, during those times when our anger flares because our agendas aren't met, when we stop giving people our understanding and acceptance. . .

Response: Spirit of God, draw us toward the energy of Your patience.

When someone needs a simple gesture of thoughtfulness, when a look of love is all another asks from us, when a good word could take the sting out of the gossip of foes. . .

Response: Spirit of God, create in us the energy of Your kindness

As we face the shadow of our inner world or peer into the darkness of our outer world, as we struggle to believe in our own gifts and blessings. . .

Response: Spirit of God, strengthen in us the energy of Your goodness.

In those difficult times when fear threatens to drown our trust in You, during those experiences of growth when we are tempted to doubt all the ways we have known You. . .

Response: Spirit of God, renew in us the energy of trusting in You.

When harshness or abruptness dominates our moods, when we feel challenged by the power of another, when we abuse the things of this good earth. . .

Response: Spirit of God, bless us with the energy of Your gentleness

As we walk on the edges of life and death, as we struggle with the disciplines of spiritual growth, as we yearn to be faithful amid the many changes of inner and outer growth.

Response: Spirit of God, move us with the energy of Your guidance.

ALL: Spirit of God, You are the stirring in our hearts. You urge us to get going. You prompt us to follow. You encourage us not to give up. You call us to open our minds and hearts to receive Your energizing, transforming radiance. Make us receptive so that we will follow Your loving movement within our lives. We trust in Your powerful presence within us. Amen

Your sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Fall Blood Drive - November 22

On Tuesday, November 22, St. James will host its final Community Blood Center blood drive for 2016. The CBC is the primary provider of blood and blood components to more than 70 hospitals and medical centers in the Kansas City region. Between the upcoming holidays and the winter months, this is typically a time when blood donations tend to decrease.

Donors of all types are especially needed this time of year. So, before you fix your Thanksgiving turkey, carve out some time to join us on the 22nd in the social hall between 12:30-7:00pm and help save lives.

Looking For Knitters and Crocheters

Our prayer shawl ministry gets together twice a month and knits or crochets prayer shawls. Some are baby colors and are given to our newest and youngest parishioners at their baptisms, some are soft and comforting and are given to those who are sick or dying, some are given to those who are going through difficult times. It's a great ministry and a very caring & kind one. Their team could use some new knitters or crocheters; if you love to knit or crochet (they don't discriminate!) contact Susan Linville for the details (816-781-3577). She'd love to talk with you about how you could be involved in this very rewarding ministry.

As we get ready for our family Thanksgiving feast, we also remember that there are many who are hungry. The In As Much food pantry needs some help filling the shelves, so we'll be assisting with what we hope is a really big food drive.

Our students will pass out bags on the weekend of November 12 & 13 – if your child would like to do that for the Saturday 5:00 pm, or the Sunday 7:30, 11:00am or 6:00pm Masses, send me a quick email.

They will gladly accept any non-perishable food items, but here's the wish list of the things they are really needing more of:

macaroni & cheese	jelly
ramen noodles	pasta side dishes
sugar	rice side dishes
Rotel tomatoes	refried beans
	chicken soup
	cream soups (cream of mushroom, etc)

We'll have large pallet boxes in the narthex for the weekend of November 19 & 20 and we'll need student volunteers to help parishioners put their donations in the boxes.

St James is always very generous for these drives, and our friends at In As Much are very grateful for your partnership in feeding the hungry.
