Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Do You Know?

Storm Damage

Near hurricane winds, estimated at 70 mph, lifted a portion of our TPO roof last Saturday evening. It seems the magnitude of storms everywhere continues to intensify.

That said, we must do everything possible to prepare for these weather related incidents. Our contractor suggested, and we concurred, that he increase the number of tie down points from one every three feet (the standard) to one every foot and increase the length of the screws utilized.

The damage internally was minimal and repairs have been made. We will inspect the shingled areas as well and repair as necessary.

Our maintenance team has been inspecting and sealing and caulking windows in the facility. It is a time consuming, and sometimes frustrating task, in an aging facility. We are making headway.

Thank You,

Jim Newell, Operations Manager

From the Pastor's Pen

"But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ."
(Ephesians 2: 12-14)

Precious Blood spirituality calls for inclusion, for seeking out people who feel unloved, rejected and alone, in the same way that Christ seeks them out. Because Jesus shed his blood to bring reconciliation, love and hope to each and every one of us, the Missionaries seek to spread this reconciling love to everyone, especially the lost, the hopeless, the poor, the victims of violence — anyone who feels left out of the circle of God's love.

Fr. David Kelly, C.P.P.S., who serves at the Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation which ministers to youth in a violence-torn neighborhood of Chicago writes:

We have to create communities of hope where we recognize that our lives are intertwined with one another and that what affects one, affects us all. This ethos – the interconnectedness of all – is at the heart of the spirituality that calls us to be ambassadors of reconciliation. It seems to me that at the very core – the very essence – of who we are, has to be the willingness to enter into the tension and messiness of life and witness to the power of God's love to transform. I have to believe that is our ministry – walking faithfully into the muddled mess of life and giving witness to the transforming power of the Blood of Christ.

Jesus offered his body and blood to his disciples at the last supper and welcomed them to sit at table with him. Missionaries, then, open their doors to friends and to strangers. They share what they have.

On October 21 we, the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, celebrate the Feast day of our founder, St. Gaspar del Bufalo. May his vision of a community committed to the Spirituality of the Precious Blood continue to inspire us to follow in his footsteps and reach out to those on the edges and stand in the breeches, the messiness of life.

St. Gaspar, pray for us.

In the gift of His peace,
Fr. Timothy

HEALTH UPDATE!

Hello friends! It's time for another health update. It's official. I've been approved for a Liver Transplant at KU Medical Center. So what does this mean? Well, right now, hopefully nothing. This past week, October 9-13, I went to KU for some fresh labs. This will give them my most up-to-date MELD score. They use this to determine my place on the list. The higher the score, the higher up on the list I'm placed. After I'm placed on the list, it's a waiting game. The average wait for a liver is no more than 6 months at KU. So you may see me one week-end, and then not for a while - just depends when I get the phone call. Once I receive the call, I will be out of commission for about 4-6 weeks.

Please know I will do my best to communicate with everyone and keep you up-to-date with everything going on.

Again, thank you for all the love, prayers and support. I couldn't do this without my St. James family!

-Daniel Baker

ATTENTION – ATTENTION New Communion Ministers

We are in need of additional Communion Ministers for weekend Masses, hospital, nursing home and home bound.

To register, please e-mail Nancy Streeter at nmstreeter@kc.rr.com. Registrations must be received by Sunday night, October 29.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

How many times have you felt unworthy of forgiveness? How many times have you thought or said: "I just can't forgive myself"? I want to suggest this statement is one of arrogance, not humility. After all most of us acknowledge that when asked God forgives. Reconciliation is considered a sacrament of healing, yet somehow we find it difficult to let go, to forgive, and to be healed.

Recently I read these words from Fr. Richard Rohr: "The True Self is always humble. It knows that we didn't do it right and that it isn't even about doing it right; it's just about doing it. Our True Self knows that everything belongs. That means holding together the good and the bad, the dark and the light, the sinner and the saint - which are two parts of me and two parts of everything." He continues with the idea that human nature hold on to the "need to expel, exclude, deny and avoid." In other words good verses evil, dark verses light, saint verses sinner. Only God holds everything together even these opposites and only God always forgives. If we humans can learn to embrace opposites in ourselves, to forgive ourselves, then it becomes easier to forgive members of our family, neighbors, even enemies. Our hearts gradually change. We no longer blame others, projecting evil onto other nations, religions, minorities, or political parties. We begin to understand that to forgive we must not live in the past, and just perhaps that forgiveness begins with forgiving ourselves. May we all learn to forgive as Jesus taught.

Want to give electronically?

Two ways to make this hassle free with no extra fees for you or the church!

You may use your own online banking to send us electronic checks. At most banks this is a free service and you can set it up however works for your family. Please use the memo section to tell us how you want the money distributed.

You may join our auto draw system. We make one draw a month on the first Wed of the month. You tell us the amount and how you would like it distributed (Tithe and/or NCF), and we break it up. Our Auto draw system (ACH) continues to grow. We currently have 360 families using the draw. This is an easy and convenient way to give to the church. It is free to us and you, in most cases. Out of town- no worries, the draw takes care of this for you at the beginning of each month. Forgot your envelope- no problem, the draw has you covered. Mistake on using the incorrect envelope – nope, not with the auto draw. If you would like to use this system or have questions – please feel free to contact me, it really is easy.

GIVE ELECTRONICALLY?

Don't forget - we have made green laminated cards for you to put in the offering basket. Stop by the information stand in the Narthex before Mass to pick one up.

If you have any questions and/or concerns on any financial numbers, please feel free to contact me.

FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY CELEBRATION TUESDAY, OCTOBER 24

Join with your fellow parishioners on Tuesday, October 24 to celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary

PLACE: Our Church

TIME: 6:00 pm

During this beautiful celebration, parishioners circle our worship area and candles are lit in the circle as we pray the beautiful rosary prayers. Following the praying of the rosary, we process to the Prayer Garden to pray the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The celebration of this day invites all to meditate upon the mysteries of Christ, following the example of the Blessed Virgin Mary who was so singularly associated with the incarnation, passion and glorious resurrection of the Son of God.

The importance of the rosary as a way of prayer has been a constant message in the addresses and writings of all of our recent popes. In the words of Pope Benedict XVI, "the rosary within itself contains the healing power of the Most Holy Name of Jesus invoked in faith and love at the center of each Hail Mary."

Please join us on October 24

Fr. Alvin L. Herber, C.P.P.S.
August 10, 1924 - October 12, 2017

Fr. Al served as our pastor at St. James for 11 years – from 1977 to 1988.

He entered the Missionaries of the Precious Blood on August 31, 1942 and on May 18, 1950, was ordained for the Missionaries of the Precious Blood.

After a series of assignments in various capacities in Iowa, Missouri and Ohio, Indiana, and Kansas, In August of 1966, Fr. Al began what was to be 35 years of service to the Church as a pastor when he began his ministry in Nebraska City, NE and then Garden, KS. On August 18, 1977, he began what was to be his longest term as pastor when he arrived here in Liberty. .

At that time, the church was quite small and located just off the downtown area and the need for a larger church was becoming evident as the city was growing. As pastor, Fr. Al oversaw the construction of a new church, rectory, and school at its present location in Liberty.

Following his 11 years at St. James, he served as pastor in a series of parishes in Oklahoma, Missouri, and Wisconsin. He then served in semi-retirement at Church of the Ascension in Overland Park.

In 2004, after 54 years of service to the Church and his community, Fr. Al began the ministry of full-time retirement at St. Charles Center, Carthage, OH, where he resided until his death at age 93.

PB&J (Prayer, Bible Stories & Jammin')

is a musical class teaching Bible Stories and basic Catholic Faith Formation through song, dance and age / development appropriate stimulation. We have infants in our classes as young as 6 months who benefit from the infant exercises and vestibular system stimulation through music and movement. Exploring toddlers are moving around our room, listening and dancing, and strengthening their steady beat skills. Preschool children are setting bible stories to memory through song and actions, practicing mid-line crossing activities to strengthen their core and promote balance, and working through basic social skills. All children and their parents have fun in a safe environment while we practice Mass postures such as bowing, the sign of peace, and the sign of the cross, and all experience weekly prayer where we practice kneeling and singing our basic Catholic prayers. Add in some social dances and instrument exploration, and we are just a fun 45-minute class offered weekly, and only here at St. James!

Thank you from In As Much You Were Awesome!

We heard from Urban Miller, our parishioner who coordinates our food drives for the In As Much food pantry that the food drive was incredible! We completely filled to overflowing 4 large pallet tubs of food. Their shelves are now filled completely and he has another bin filled with overflow items. Excellent work!

He says that this will hold the food pantry until the Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday drives begin, and that everyone at In As Much is very grateful for our generosity.

Birthdays this week: Today we celebrate all that you with God's help, have accomplished.
