Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 9, 2018

Then will the eyes of the blind
be opened,
the ears of the deaf
be cleared;
then will the lame leap like a stag, then the tongue of the mute will sing.

Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Do You Know?

Thanks to our 13-year-old parishioner Zac Goens and his drone, this aerial picture, taken on August 28, shows the construction site in relation to the location of the school, the service road, additional parking, and the circular drop-off road that will run in front of the new church.

Thank You,
Jim Newell - Operations Manager

From the Pastor's Pen

Somewhere between here and there, (there being Columbus, Ohio), I remembered something I was asked to do before I left. This time before leaving home, I made sure to double check my list and make sure everything I needed for the weekend was in the car, including my suitcase with my clothes. As I was driving east across I-70, I remembered I was reminded and asked to have my Pastor's Pen done by Tuesday morning before I will be returning. Oh well.

Driving I-70 across Missouri, Illinois, Indiana into Ohio is not too bad of a drive, just long, but it gives me a chance for some quiet. It is a time to think and reflect. Listen to some music and maybe an audio book or two. This trip I took time to notice more of the roadside and the various billboards. At one point, I noticed several billboards for quilt shops and antiques. I just might have to stop on the return trip.

This weekend, as I write this, is Labor Day Weekend. The last weekend of the summer – the last big hurrah before settling into school and all the fall activities. Labor Day honors the American labor movement and the contributions that workers have made to the strength, prosperity, laws and well-being of the country. The lyrics of the song, "40 Hour Week," by Alabama reminds us, "There are people in this country who work hard every day, not for fame or fortune do they strive, but the fruits of their labor are worth more than their pay. And it's time a few of them were recognized." To each of you hard working folk, we say thank you!

As summer winds down and fall comes upon us, we slowly shift gears once again. I'm looking forward to the changing of the seasons and the turning of the leaves. It will be interesting to see what colors Mother Nature displays this year. Fall has always been one of my favorite seasons as the cooler weather creeps in and allows for huddling around the bonfire. I will be ready and waiting with the graham crackers and chocolate.

To all those who work for a living, we say thank you! May God continue to bless you with the strength to continue to do the work you do and may you find inspiration and a sense of accomplishment in our work.

My prayers are with you today,
Fr. Timothy

Rosary of the Seven Sorrows Saturday, September 15 - 9:30am - In the Church

The feast of Our Lady of Sorrows commemorates the seven great sorrows which Mary lived in relation to Her Son, as they are recorded in the Gospels or through Tradition.

During Mary's apparitions in Kibeho, Rwanda, she promised that when prayed with an open and repentant heart, the rosary would win us the Lord's forgiveness for our sins and free our souls from guilt and remorse.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Have you ever considered participating in a journey from darkness into light, from not knowing Christ Jesus to embracing Him in love, to giving your life to His care, to trusting where He leads? If you have then perhaps the ministry of being an RCIA Sponsor is calling you to full-active participation.

Throughout the year individuals in the RCIA process are looking to discover, re-discover – or renew their relationship with Christ Jesus. As a confirmed, practicing Catholic your role is to support these individuals as a role model, guide, witness and companion. As you journey with them your faith will be challenged, your understanding of tradition and ritual will grow, and your faith will be strengthened. As a sponsor/guide you will: be aware and make known to the catechumen or candidate that the Holy Spirit is the first and most effective guide. "It is not ourselves that we are preaching, but Christ Jesus as the Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake." (2 Cor 4:5) As a sponsor you willingly share your catholicity and life/faith story. You explain what it means to you to be a Roman Catholic Christian. You participate with the catechumen or candidate in liturgy and witness for them in rituals that give them strength for the journey to full initiation in the Church. The sponsor's journey, however, is also a journey of continual conversion.

If you feel called to be a sponsor please contact me at gene.gagnon@gmail.com or text message at 816/522-3311. Our St. James Sponsors for Christ meets the first and third Wednesday of every month in the St. Gasper room. We begin our gathering at 6:30pm with a Rosary for Healing followed by discussion and sharing until 8:00 pm. The purpose of this group is to grow in our Catholic faith tradition, renew and experience our love for Jesus, share our experiences, and to challenge and support one another in preparation of leading catechumens and candidates into the Church. Participating in this group is not a firm commitment to sponsorship but it is from this group that I first seek sponsors. All are welcome!

Your Sister in Christ. Sandy Gagnon

H.O.P.E. / SCRIP GIFT CARD NEWS

Every Day is a Special Day

It's amazing! There's something to celebrate all month long in September.

To start off with, this Sunday is National Grandparent's Day. The day became "official" with a presidential proclamation in 1978 - its purpose: to persuade grandchildren to tap the wisdom and heritage their grandparents could provide. The perfect way to honor the grandparents in your family is a gift of a HOPE gift card to their favorite store or restaurant. We have a wide selection of cards to choose from so pick up some after Mass today.

September is National Chicken month (pick up a Kentucky Fried Chicken HOPE Gift card), Better Breakfasts, Rice, Potatoes and Honey. So get your Price Chopper, HyVee, Sprouts, WalMart or Target cards and pick up the items you need to join in the celebration of these national food days this month.

September 10 is Hot Dog Day; The 12th is Chocolate Milkshake Day (think Dairy Queen); the 13th brings National Peanut Day (peanut butter counts, too) so you can use those grocery store cards you bought to stock up on this creamy, nutty confection. National Cream Filled Donut Day arrives on the 14th, so you'll want to buy cards for the stores that carry these as well. National Cheeseburger Day is the 18th - buy some McDonald, Dairy Queen, Burger King, and Wendy's cards and celebrate this day. Last, but not least, is Johnny Appleseed Day on the 26th - and it's probably time to buy some additional grocery cards and pick up apples for pies, strudel, apple crisp, and cakes, and home-made applesauce too.

And don't forget to buy HOPE Gift Cards to purchase what you need for your own special September celebrations - weddings, anniversaries, birthdays. We have HOPE cards for every occasion.

Your Support of HOPE is Appreciated

Sacrament Preparation

First Reconciliation & First Communion

In our diocese, in order for a child to receive these two sacraments, they must meet 3 simple criteria – they must be at least 7 years old, in at least the 2nd grade, and have completed at least one year of prior religious formation. That formation can be in a Catholic school, a parish Religious Education program, or a qualified program of home-study. If your child meets those criteria, and, most importantly, you feel that he/she is ready to receive these sacraments, there is a parent meeting to equip you to work with your child.

Sacramental Preparation

First Holy Communion

We offer two opportunities for the parent meeting—either Monday, September 17th or Wednesday, September 19th.

The registration table will be open from 6 to 7pm and you may come at any time during that hour to sign up. You will sign your child up, give us your email contact information, and purchase the books that you will use with your child at home. The cost for the packet is $15 and that's just our cost. If finances are an issue for you, contact the RE office and we can make arrangements.

The meeting will begin at 7pm and should last about an hour. Our apologies, but it isn't possible for us to offer childcare for this meeting and it's not one geared towards children. If you need to bring your children, it's a good idea to have something for them to read or to do.

If you can't come to either of the sessions offered, contact the RE office to be put on the list for a make up meeting.
