Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Do You Know?

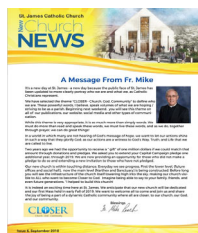

Could this pass for the flight deck of a super carrier?
Actually, it's the base of our new church.

We have been working for only five months. The lower level slab is complete and 1/2 of the upper level slab has been poured. It is almost dry enough to finish. We just need just a little more dry weather.

The excitement tends to make "Time Fly."

Thank You,
Jim Newell, Operations Manager

From the Pastor's Pen

On Friday we celebrated the Feast of the Triumph of the Holy Cross, and on Saturday, we celebrated the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows and prayed the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

So, it is fitting that this weekend, we have set up in the sanctuary, the Cross we venerate on Good Friday, providing the opportunity of laying prayers of petition that we might want to place at the foot of the Cross. As we pray in the midst of the Sexual Abuse Crisis in the Catholic Church, we know that oftentimes we feel overwhelmed about what to pray for. As Christians, we believe in the power of the Cross. So, we are invited to place our needs and prayers at the foot of the Cross.

The Virgin Mary, the Mother of Jesus didn't understand the suffering and death of her Son on the Cross, but she stayed faithfully at the foot of the Cross. So, we lift up our Church, for healing for the victims and families of sexual abuse, and pray for God's Guidance and Healing in our Church for strong and effective leadership that will lead us, the Church through this time of doubt!

Our programs are underway for the Fall, and we have many opportunities, from our School and Religious Ed programs, for the very young, teens and adult faith formation – all of which help us to grow in the ways of Faith!

Don't forget the School Auction, coming up on Friday, October 12th. All are invited for a great, fun-filled evening, and a wonderful way to support our School and Parish!

The construction of our church continues as we see walls being placed in the new structure, and the building taking shape! Thanks for all who have come 'on board', and very soon all who haven't had the opportunity to make a commitment will be invited!

It's an exciting time here at St. James. May you and your families know the power of God's Love.

Peace,

Fr. Mike

Scandals in the Church The Healing Power of Prayer

In the face of scandals in the Church, Catholics are experiencing a wide range of emotions: shock, sorrow, anger, bewilderment. Many feel helpless and wonder, "What can we do?"

While no single act can repair the hurt that has occurred, we believe in the power of prayer - that our prayers will reverberate throughout the Body of Christ and begin the healing that will make our Catholic Church whole again.

We are asked to pray as a community - so we are offering the opportunity this weekend to place our needs at the foot of the Cross. The Cross that we use for veneration on Good Friday will be in the sanctuary, next to the Easter candle and the Baptismal pool, and we are invited to write our needs for ourselves as well as for the Church and the world, and put them at the foot of the Cross.

Jiffy cornbread mix
Paper towels
Denture cleaner
Rice
Pasta side dishes
Syrup

Sugar

Cookies
Rice side dishes
Snack crackers

What's New?!?!?

Where do I begin? Well, Parish Choir is off to a great start! We again are full over in a our "little musician's area!" And I am NOT complaining. What a great problem to have! Luckily in our new church our choir space will seat over 40 so we have room to GROW GROW GROW!!!

This past Sunday, our Teen Choir started back up for the school year. It was a great success and the students are singing beautifully. We have room for more! If you are in high school and love to sing, our next practice is Sunday, September 23rd at 4:30pm. They will lead music at the 6:00pm Mass.

Beginning in October, the Parish Bell Choir will resume their Wednesday rehearsals at 6:00pm. If you are interested in joining this fun group, please watch the bulletin for upcoming details!

-Daniel Baker

Children's Choir

This weekend the Children's Choir will sing at its first Mass of the school year - and the children are quite excited to lead. They have been working hard to learn the songs and to sing them well, and they have been making connections to the songs and the Sunday readings. We are not a "performance" choir, but instead a "service" choir, learning to be leaders.

If you have a child (K-5th grade) who wants to sing with us, or if you have a middle school student (6-8th grades) who wants to learn and practice cantoring skills, please contact Lori Tajchman. It's never too late to join our choir!

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Last Sunday, Grandparents' Day, followed a special day at school with my two youngest grandchildren. Although Grandparents' Day doesn't get much attention, except in school and churches, our prayer for grandparents called to mind my experiences as a grandchild.

I was fortunate to know both my maternal and paternal grandparents as well as my mother's grandmother. I have happy memories of spending time in Oklahoma and Minnesota with my grandparents. It was beside my Grandfather Hamit that I learned about building houses and Grandmother Hamit taught me to sew and quilt. As she made Raggedy Anns and Andys, I made simple clothes for my dolls. She took me to her quilting circle and it was there I began to embroider, struggling to make short, straight stitches. I always enjoyed being with them, even though I needed to stay quiet and mind my manners.

I also had great adventures when I visited my Mentch grandparents, in their trailer home, during summers in Minnesota. I suppose now my grandparents would be referred to as "snowbirds;" they spent summers in Minnesota and winters in Florida. In Minnesota I could swim and go fishing (although I never developed an enjoyment for fishing). On Friday evenings we went to Pow Wows, watching Native Americans, in colorful costumes, dancing to the rhythmic beating of drums. Often walking back to my grandparents trailer, we detoured to the Dairy Queen to enjoy ice-cream cones. Of course I was amazed and captivated by their little home on wheels.

These memories, I believe, shaped my ideas of what it means to be a grandparent. Time spent with my grandparents were full of love, activities that were fun and a break from normal routines at home. My grandparents always made me feel special, even when I was in trouble. Their guidance was always patient and kind. I don't remember my grandparents ever yelling at me or telling me I was a "bad child" and I never wanted to disappoint them. I looked forward to time spent with them and was a bit sad to leave their homes. I cherish the life lessons they taught me, filled with respect and love for others. My hope is that I follow their example with my grandchildren.

Your Sister in Christ. Sandy Gagnon

Plant Now For Spring

While it's barely fall, winter is yet to come, and spring is months away, now is the time to plant for spring.

There's no better way to take a break than refueling your body with your favorite foods - after all "Ya Gotta Eat!" So don't forget to pick up HOPE cards for your favorite grocery or restaurant along with the cards you'll use for your gardening supplies.

We sell HOPE Gift Cards after every weekend Mass and in the Parish and School offices during regular business hours.

Stewardship of Treasure

Stepping Up – Do Something

Everyday Stewardship – Faith without works is dead!
The key word in all this is DO!

One of my all-time favorite passages is today's 2nd reading (James 2:14-18). We don't spend a lot of time focusing on the 2nd reading usually, so I don't want you to miss this. What I hear James telling us is: Do something! Don't just give lip service to our faith. Let our actions show we are good people; people of God. I feel these are words to remember and try to live by. God calls us to ACT – not talk about it. Love Him, Love our neighbor as ourself. Now is that hard – definitely, some days harder than others. I would think everyone of us has been guilty of this in some fashion: Talking a good game, but not really stepping up to the plate for the follow through. Stewardship pleas for us to act- in all the ways of time, talent, and treasure. It would be hard, impossible to share and give of ourselves without ACTING.

This week, let us say to ourselves: May I strive to be a better person today than I was yesterday and pray to be better tomorrow than I am today. (Who knows - it might become a habit)

I will leave you with this. In the words of my beloved family priest, Fr. Sandy Sinclair – "If you get the urge to do something good - go ahead- God won't mind!"

As always, if you have any questions and/or concerns about any financial numbers – please feel free to contact me.

Blessings, Katie Klassen

Our Faith In Action

September Blood Drive - September 25 Emergency Shortage

Donating blood isn't just about needles, free t-shirts, and eating cookies when you're finished. It's about making a difference and truly impacting lives by doing something selfless for someone else. Blood cannot be manufactured like medicine. It can only come from other human beings; people like you, with a big heart and a desire to help others. Our area is still experiencing a blood shortage and all blood types are needed.

Please join us on Tuesday, September 25 any time between 12:30-7:00pm in the Social Hall, as we partner with Community Blood Center of KC to host our fifth blood drive of the year.

Appointments are encouraged and can be made online at www.esavealifenow.org using sponsor code 'stjames', or by contacting Nikki at 816-407-1208 or kpower@kc.rr.com. Walk-ins are welcome, and childcare is available. Volunteers are needed to help with refreshments and childcare. Contact Nikki if you are interested. For medical eligibility questions, please call 1-800-688-0900.

For each donor's generosity, two to three patients' lives could be touched. Please consider being a donor on the 25th. You CAN make a difference!

Faith Sharing is off to a great start!

If you have a 6, 7, or 8 grader and would still like to sign them up for Faith Sharing you still can! Join us Wednesdays at 6:30-8pm.

This year for Faith Sharing, we will be having combined 7th and 8th grade classes. The hope behind this is to help prepare the students for High School Youth Group. This way as they grow into High School they will already have friends in other grades, allowing for a better community as they enter into High School!

We will be trying these classes for the first semester. We will then review how it is going and decide whether to continue the combined classes or to separate them.

Please pray for these students as they continue to grow in their faith throughout the year!

Donate to the less fortunate in honor of St Vincent de Paul (feast day Sept 27th)

Celebrate the feast of St Vincent de Paul early by donating to the less fortunate--like our parish's September food drive for the In as Much food pantry! Take your child with you to the store and let them help pick out the items that you plan to donate. Let them bag them up and talk about how we are called by Jesus to look after the poor and the hungry. Then have your children help pass out bags to parishioners after Mass next weekend so that they can see that they are part of a larger effort to stock the pantry.

Or maybe take some clothing or household items down to the Hillcrest Hope Thrift store. September is a good month for looking out for the vulnerable!

The Hillcrest Hope Thrift Store supports the transformation happening every day at Hillcrest Hope. All proceeds from the Thrift Store exclusively support Hillcrest Hope, raising funds for these families in Clay County. Store donations contribute to the practical needs of the families during their stay in the program, as well as aid the families as they seek their own housing upon graduation.

This group of women meet for fellowship, reflection, and discussion of books regarding our Catholic faith.

We meet on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of the month from 6:30 – 8:00pm in the St. James School Teacher's Lounge. We will begin on September 19 and meet through April. The book we have chosen is "Walking the Road to God" by Fr. Lawrence Carney. If interested, we suggest that you order a copy and bring it to class on September 19.

If you have any questions, call Karen McKee 816-820-7163.
