Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Do You Know?

In our Narthex you may have noticed some frontal renderings of the church populated by "ghost like" figures entering and exiting.

The intent is to allow you to see the pattern and flow of the paving stones to two separate levels of sidewalk to entry level. Atlas is doing the layout and installation. It certainly sets the tone.

From the Pastor's Pen

As we celebrate this Second Sunday of Easter and Divine Mercy Sunday, we are mindful of the power of the Risen Lord Jesus among us. As our young children celebrate their First Holy Communion the next few Easter weekends, we are mindful of the New Life that this season offers us.

A special THANK YOU to all who made our Triduum Liturgies and Easter Sunday celebrations so beautiful – our Liturgical Ministers, the Art & Environment folks, our Choir and all involved in Music Ministry. We are so very blessed here at St. James with good and faithful stewards. Thanks so much for sharing your gifts!

As we can see, our new Church is taking shape and we hopefully will be dedicating it in August / September. When the date is absolutely confirmed, we will pass that on. But to all those who have pledged, we thank you for your faithful giving. And to those who have not made a pledge to our Building Fund but give on a regular basis, we are MOST grateful.

We celebrate the Easter season for 50 Days, from Easter to the celebration of Pentecost. May we reflect on these Easter readings, and come to know the power of God's Goodness and Love, and presence of the Risen Lord Jesus, who is always leading and guiding us.

We lift up the Society of the Precious Blood this coming week, as they gather for their Annual Assembly, and as they look forward to the future, we thank God for their continuing presence here at St. James!

Blessings and Peace to you and your families,

Fr. Mike

Psalm 118

Reflection

As we did on Easter Sunday, again we hear the triumphant chant of Psalm 118. The psalm begins with a litany whose response is "His mercy endures forever."

In the Gospel we see that God's mercy indeed endures forever, even beyond the grave and the end of earthly life. Jesus returns to his disciples and the first words he speaks to them are, "Peace be with you." This might not have been the greeting they expected. During Jesus' his passion and crucifixion Peter had denied knowing him three times, and we only hear of one man, the unnamed Beloved Disciple who is present at the foot of the cross. But far from anger or bitterness, Jesus greets his closest followers with joy and love. "Peace be with you." And thus redeemed, Jesus invites them to become instruments of mercy, whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.

Prayer

Give thanks to the Lord, for God is good.
God's love is everlasting!
Let all that has breath sing praise to God.
God's love is everlasting!
God cast fear and doubt away.
God's love is everlasting!
Christ is risen!
Alleluia! Alleluia!

ATTENTION ST. JAMES YOUTH

Interested in learning more? Email Danny at danny@stjames-liberty.org or just come to our next rehearsal on May 12.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Many of you have knowledge of or have experienced first hand the Journey to Reception of the Initiation Sacraments of the Catholic Church (the RCIA). Last Saturday, at the Easter Vigil, 17 individuals received these sacraments, and the assumption is often made that their journey is now over. Nothing is further from the truth, rather the newly initiated enter into the fourth period of catechesis, Mystagogy which officially lasts until the Church celebrates the Feast of Pentecost. What I want to suggest, however, is that mystagogy is a life-long journey, for each of us, which continues until we pass from this earthly life into the fullness of life with Our Father, guided by the Spirit and promised by the Son.

Life-long mystagogy is a journey of discovery; growing in faith within a community of believers, developing a deepening understanding of the paschal mystery, and living a life centered in prayer and service to God and to one another. This journey requires giving ourselves over to God's loving care, meditating on the Gospel, sharing in the Eucharist, caring for the earth, doing works of mercy, and embracing an openness to change brought about through continuous renewal by the Holy Spirit leading us to thinking and acting agapically toward all of God's children, i.e. our brothers and sisters.

Many times throughout each day I pass an inspirational print that hangs on a wall between my kitchen and hallway leading to the laundry room and garage. Although this print is simple, with few colors, patterns or words, what is written is powerful and a constant reminder for my mystagogical journey:

Don't Shine
So
Others can see
You,
Shine so that,
THROUGH
YOU others can see
HIM

Will you join me on this life-long journey of mystagogy and risk discovering new ways to let His light shine through you?

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Director of Religious Education Position Open

We are currently accepting applications for the position of Director of Religious Education. This job is full-time, salaried with benefits.

Feast Day of Saints Philip and James - May 3

Philip and James (the lesser) were both apostles, and both served Christ faithfully during the very early days of the Church. Both died a martyr's death. They share the same feast day because their remains were brought to Rome on the same day and now rest in the Church of the Twelve Apostles which was originally dedicated to them.

Stewardship of Treasure

In an effort to clearly state some facts concerning the New Church Facility Cost and payments:

The upper level/ Sanctuary cost: $10,700,000
(This number was first shared at the Town Hall meetings on September 10th and 13th, 2017)

The lower level – parish offices and parish hall cost: $2,100,000

(Diocese approval shared by Fr. Mike in his Pastor's Pen on 9/30/18 and in the October 2018 edition of the New Church News. The lower level was not originally in this phase. Due to money savings by constructing all at once, the diocese granted permission.)

Total project budget:	$12,800,000
Paid for services rendered through 3/19/19:	$ 7,199,383
Balance:	$ 5,600,617
Total loan amount available from diocese:	$ 5,500,000

As stated in the March 31st bulletin, we are now in "borrowing" mode with the project. We will continue to send down designated monies for the NCF as they are received each month.

I hope this has answered some of the questions concerning our outgoing expenses and monies received. These numbers also help clarify the need to keep raising awareness and funds for the New Church space.

As always, if you have any questions and/or concerns about any financial numbers – please feel free to contact me.

Blessings, Katie Klassen

Hillcrest News

*Are you spring cleaning a la Marie Kondo?
Help Hillcrest at the same time!*

The Hillcrest Hope thrift store at 7 West Mill Street (right across the street from Franklin Elementary) is a major fundraiser for our Hillcrest apartments. All proceeds earned by the store go directly to underwrite the costs of the apartments. Each sponsoring church pays a monthly fee – like rent – but there are always expenses that are over and above what the churches can pay. Like the ever-leaking toilet in the apartment upstairs or the mysterious lack of water pressure in our apartment's kitchen sink – plumbers don't work for peanuts.

So while you are putting into practice what you learned while binge-watching "Tidying Up," plan to donate all the stuff you purge from your closets and basements to the Hillcrest store. We promise not to judge how you fold your socks, but please don't give your "junk" to anyone else!! If you have large items, or a large amount to donate, you can give them a call and arrange to have their truck come and pick it up for you.

So spark a little joy for your Hillcrest neighbors while you de-clutter your own space!

The City of Liberty is excited to join America in Bloom in 2019, a national awards program that encourages the use of flowers, plants, trees and other environmental and lifestyle enhancements as ways to beautify the community as a whole. Judges will visit Liberty to evaluate our community based on landscaped areas, urban forestry, floral displays, heritage preservation, environmental efforts, overall involvement and community involvement!

Our community already does quite a bit to create a vibrant, colorful community. With the help of residents, neighborhoods, businesses and community partners, we can all help to showcase Liberty in Bloom!

Please notify us to remove your name from our prayer lists when it is time. In respect of HIPAA we will add names to the prayer list only by request of the person or immediate family.
