Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

The purpose of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life.

While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), to the Religious life in all its forms (male and female, contemplative and apostolic), to societies of apostolic life, to secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life, in the particular sense of mission "ad gentes".

2019 marks the 56th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations

From the Pastor's Pen

As spring time approaches and we are greeted each morning with a beautiful sunrise and more and more blooming flowers, I am reminded of the phrase I heard my grandparents speak this time of the year as we were running for shelter to escape the rain, "April showers bring May flowers." Over and over, I would hear someone repeat that phrase. I never really thought to much of it at the time. Thinking of it again this spring, I became curious and wondered what sort of story might be behind the phrase.

It reaches back to the mid 1500s, although earlier use of "April showers bring May flowers" probably existed. In 1557, a man by the name of Thomas Tusser compiled a collection of writings he called "A Hundred Good Points of Husbandry." In the April husbandry section, he wrote: Sweet April showers Do spring May flowers.

In addition, there is meaning behind the words. In one sense, it is a reminder that even the most unpleasant of things can bring about very enjoyable things indeed. For example, the heavy rains of April, can bring about an abundance of flowers in May. It can also be a reminder of a lesson in patience, that good things are worth the wait.

Many of life's greatest things come only to those who wait. By patiently and happily enduring the clouds and dampness of April, we can more easily take in the sights and smells of the beautiful flowers of May. Sometimes beginning with a more optimistic attitude allows us to be more open to seeing something beautiful and wonderful later in life.

How many stories have we heard or experiences have we had because someone was willing and able to wait? Or maybe, we ourselves experienced something wonderful because we were able to endure a bit of cloudy skies? Perseverance and hard work can and does contributed to great accomplishments.

If the saying is true, then after the rains we have had this spring, we should have an over abundance of May flowers. Will it be so?

May is a time of celebrating great accomplishments as graduations approach, end of the school year. We celebrate the many Mom's in our lives with Mother's Day. We remember and celebrate May dedicated to Mary, Mother of God and our Mother. So many ways we wait in anticipation and hope of something wonderful to celebrate.

Fr. Timothy

A 🎵 from the Liturgy/Music Office

Well, it doesn't get any clearer than this,
"I WILL PRAISE YOU, LORD,
YOU HAVE RESCUED ME!"

I don't know about you, but I can't begin to count the number of times that God has rescued me. Whether it be emotionally, physically, or spiritually, God has brought me through it all.

This psalm is very timely for me, personally. This time last year I had just received my life-saving liver transplant and was released home, only to return to the hospital a few days later. At that time I would remain in the hospital for 6 more weeks battling a virus. But through YOUR love, support, prayers, and MEALS, God rescued me. He brought me safely through the storm. It's with new enthusiasm and praise that I will proclaim this psalm this weekend. I also have the opportunity to praise God through a concert that I'm giving with my friend Katie Dake in Sedalia, MO this Saturday evening. You may remember 2 years ago a piano duet concert at St. James? We hope to bring you another one of these to St. James in June.

Blessings,

Daniel A. Baker

Someone is Watching and Wondering

In our Easter Bulletin there was an insert titled Celebrating the Easter Season at Home, I was particularly moved by the article, The Fruit of the Spirit in Real Life which listed nine dimensions or facets of the fruits of the Holy Spirit (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control). I was reminded of the areas in my life that need help and subsequently I have spent some time reflecting on how I might become more wholly Christian, living so as to reflect Christ to the world. As part of my quiet, reflective time (which generally includes spiritual reading) I stumbled upon St. Barnabas and his evangelization to the non-Jewish community.

The Acts of the Apostles describes, "a Levite, a native of Cyprus, Joseph, to whom the apostles gave the name Barnabas (which means 'son of encouragement') [who] sold a field that belonged to him, then brought the money, and laid it at the apostles feet." (4:36-37) It was also Barnabas who introduced Paul to the disciples (Chapter 9:27), who the disciples sent to investigate the gentiles in Antioch who were proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus, and who later traveled with Paul on the first missionary journey to Cyprus (Acts 13). Tradition states that Barnabas preached in Alexandria and Rome, was the founder of the Cypriot Church, and was stoned to death at Salamis around 61 AD. I was inspired by the generosity and faithfulness of St. Barnabas, which are at times lacking in my life and witness to the Gospel. Although I tithe to the Church and give to other charitable organizations, I continue to worry about making ends meet. While I know that God provides for me in so many ways, I still hold on to the idea that I need to be self-sufficient and unlike Barnabas I often stumble and simply give up trying to proclaim Jesus' message to those who reject me.

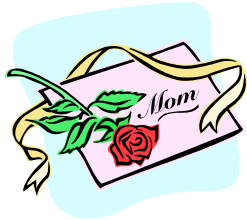

This prayer to St. Barnabas has helped: We thank you, brother Barnabas, for your liberating work in the early church. The original Twelve called you into apostleship, then gave you the new name Barnabas, "son of encouragement." Through controversy you opened wide the doors of the church, when not welcomed at synagogue you moved to work with gentiles. With your companionship, may I also be faithful and generous, welcoming diversity in our worldwide community. Amen.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Stewardship of Treasure

LOVE – Feel the Burn

“He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” Peter was distressed that he had said to him a third time, “Do you love me?” and he said to him, “Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.” [Jesus] said to him, “Feed my sheep.” John 21: 17

“How is a well-meaning person able to find out the true meaning of love? You don't know what true love is? I think you do. Turn your eyes to that crucifix hanging in your church...” In the book, “Everyday Stewardship”, Mr. Welliver talks about how it is difficult today to determine the true meaning of love.

I am excited to share this with you. I also have shared this is my belief. What greater love is there! There is no greater symbol for love then the cross. “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son” John 3:16. Peter is desperate for Jesus to believe him. He feels guilt that he denied Jesus. He wants – needs Jesus to acknowledge his love. Do we feel that burning in our hearts? Do we need the Father and Son to know we love them? I do! Sometimes it feels the only answer for forgiveness; to make sure God knows I love Him.

This time of year is the best for acknowledging and taking up our stewardship. The world knows something has happened – the tomb is empty. Let us share with them this Great LOVE.

REJOICE! CHRIST IS RISEN!

As always, if you have any questions and/or concerns about any financial numbers – please feel free to contact me.

Blessings, Katie Klassen

Easter season—the perfect time to bring new life into your marriage by learning Natural Family Planning! Self-giving love rejects imposing the negative effects of contraception on the beloved and embraces God's design of natural fertility patterns.

A series of classes in the sympto-thermal method (STM) of NFP will be offered at St. Andrew Parish, 6415 NE Antioch Rd, Gladstone, MO, beginning on Monday, May 13th, at 6:30pm. Reasonable course fee, and financial assistance available. STM makes use of all of the observable signs of fertility, and can be used with great success either to postpone or achieve pregnancy.
