Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Do You Know?

We could not hold back on publishing a picture of the new church with the golden cross. It was installed last Monday morning, June 10, and looks great in the day and even better at night, all the way out to I-35.

We will have more to say on this subject next week.

From the Pastor's Pen

First of all, Happy Father's Day to all our dads, grandpas, godfathers, and all others who are fathers to us in so many different ways. Thank you for who you are and all that you have shared with each of us.

This weekend we also celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The mystery of our faith that becomes real and personal for us. I know it is sometimes a touchy path to follow when we call God, our Father, and we invite people to connect the two when one's image of father may not be that great. However, we are still challenged to have an image of God that speaks to us. As we search our own memory banks for images of God, the Father, what image, what person comes to mind? We speak of God, the Son, Jesus, the One who became flesh and dwelt among us. We speak of God, the Holy Spirit, the spirit that is alive within each one of us. We draw upon different memories and different images in hopes to have some glimpse of who God is to us in our lives.

The story is told of a student drawing a picture. When asked by the teacher what she was drawing, the student replied, "God." But, the teacher went on to say no one knows what God looks like. "They will when I'm done!" exclaimed the student. In so many different ways we try to explain and describe what God looks like. Even art and media has tried to depict who and what God is. Today, as we celebrate Trinity Sunday, who or what is our image of God? And just maybe we can be that student with crayons in hand showing the world what God really looks like!

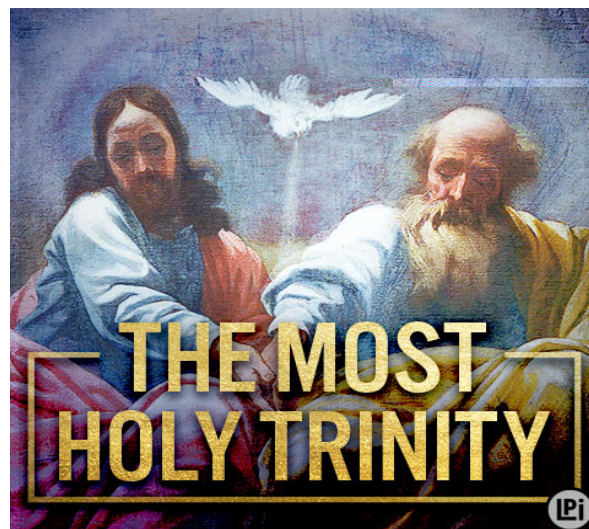

Over the years, my image of God has been shaped, formed and re-imagined. Today, my image of God is a pair of old weathered hands cupped to hold something or someone. "Daddy's hands were soft and kind when I was cryin', Daddy's hands were hard as steel when I'd done wrong, Daddy's hands weren't always gentle but I've come to understand, There was always love in daddy's hands"

Happy Father's Day! Fr. Timothy

Faith Hope Love – the Holy Trinity

...and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Romans 5: 5

Take a moment to think about the passage above: The love of God has been poured into our hearts – OUR HEARTS - through the Holy Spirit by the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Three in One – how can we go wrong! Our name has been with God since time began. We are given faith, hope and love through the grace Jesus Christ provided for us.

Faith – is yesterday. It is our assurance God is with us.

Hope – is tomorrow. It is our belief in God.

Love – is today. It is to live with God, to the fullest, in the moment.

Are we living that moment? Are we taking in the nourishment provided for us through the sacrament of Holy Eucharist and sharing it with others? Do we pour the love of God into other's hearts? Simple acts of kindness can make this happen. Will we witness a conversion of another soul right before our eyes? Probably not. But we have been given Faith Hope and Love, so we can share. We are called to share. The Father, Son and Holy Spirit – grace has been freely given to us. Let's do something good with it.

Take time this week, just a few minutes, to breath. To take in what the Holy Trinity shares with us. Be armed to pass it on to others.

As always, if you have any questions and/or concerns about any financial numbers – please feel free to contact me.

Blessings, Katie Klassen

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life are based on the conversion experience of St. Ignatius of Loyola, founder of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits).

The Spiritual Exercises, made in a nine-month prayer program, are a framework and a dynamic experience of spiritual growth, interior freedom, a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and finding God in all things. The program includes praying with Scripture, journaling, and meeting weekly with a trained Ignatian prayer guide.

Join representatives from the Ignatian Spirituality Center of Kansas City, on July 10, for an overview of the Spiritual Exercises in Daily Life, hear stories and ask questions of two people who have completed the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life and are experienced prayer guides.
